

PROBATION LAD TO GOVERNOR OF OKLAHOMA

Chief Executive and State Bank Official Indicted On Charge of Having Accepted Money From Insolvent Firm

$25,000 Paid Them to Deposit Funds in Financial Institution to Enable It to Continue, the Warrant Alleges OKMULGEE, Okla., March 22.—(By the Associated Press)—A joint indictment charging Governor J. B. A. Robertson, of Oklahoma, and Fred G. Dennis, former state banking commissioner, with accepting a bribe to permit the Guaranty State Bank here to continue to do business after it had been found insolvent was returned by the district court grand jury yesterday. It was learned today by The Associated Press.

"Sheriff Frank Sowers, of Okmulgee county, now has a warrant for Governor Robertson's arrest but said he expected to hear from the executive some time during the day and that he did not intend to serve the warrant today.

NAMED AS RECIPIENTS OF $25,000 BRIBE.

Governor Robertson and Dennis were named as recipients of the $25,000 bribe conditioned on their deposit of $150,000 of state funds in the Guaranty State Bank to permit the bank to continue to operate, in an indictment returned by the district court grand jury against John P. Cook, former president of the bank, and John H. Rebold, vice-president. Cook and Rebold have been arrested.

The indictment charges that the money was paid to the governor and Dennis with the felonious intent to influence the decisions and judgment of them after Dennis had conducted an examination of the bank's affairs on the same day and found the institution to be in an insolvent condition and that Rebold was liable to the bank for money borrowed in the sum of $400,000.

ROBERTSON ONCE FACING IMPEACHMENT.

Robertson, fourth governor of Oklahoma, assumed office January 1, 1919, having been elected on the democratic ticket the preceding fall. He has been a resident of Oklahoma since 1893.

Governor Robertson was born in Keosauqua, Iowa, in 1871. The indictment is not the first time his name has been linked with the Okmulgee bank situation.

In a sensational report returned by the investigation committee of the house of eighth Oklahoma legislature of March 31 of last year, the governor was charged with having accepted a bribe for misuse of his official powers in connection with alleged illegal transactions involving the Guaranty State Bank of Okmulgee and his impeachment was recommended, but in a spectacular scene in which a democratic member of the house was brought to the chamber in an ambulance to vote, the body rejected the committee report.

J. J. Perkins of Oklahoma city, who left his sick bed to vote against the report later died.

Later J. May Brown, president of the defunct Bank of Commerce, was arrested on eight indictments, four of which charged accepting deposits in an insolvent bank, three embezzlement and one that he made a false report as to the condition of the bank. He gave bond and was released.

A. J. Peters, former vice-president of the Guaranty State Bank and now president of the American National Bank, was arrested on an indictment alleging that he had removed abstracts and papers of the Guaranty State Bank, and released on bond.

H. D. Cooke, a former director of the Guaranty State Bank, was the next to be arrested. He was charged with borrowing money from the bank while serving it as an officer.

The Robbery at Four Buttes

AFTER the train robbery at Four Buttes most everyone went out looking for Stubby by Lewis. The job, said the sheriff, bore all of Stubby's earmarks. Besides, there was no other man in the county who had the nerve or disposition to turn the trick. The reputation of Lewis, who had served one short term, was not good.

Among the few who did not join in the search was John Edwards, who hunted rabbits, between showers, and kept out of the way of the posses that he might not be depulized in a task that would require long hours of hard work as well as the possibility of facing the six-shooter of a bad man. Edwards looked in the brush for rabbits and found Stubby.

"Gosh," ejaculated the astonished hunter, keeping his shotgun pointed at the exhausted and dispirited young man who stood open-handed before him. "What's the big idea stepping out on me like this?"

"How's a man goin' to get out these hills?" asked the hunted man, unbuckling his belt and letting it drop, with revolver, to the ground. "There is no place to go but up, the passes are guarded and the dogs are sure to get me. Tough as they say I am, I don't want to shoot anybody. Take me into town. You can claim the reward."

John Edwards thought of the $1000 that had been posted and of other things as he walked silently behind the younger man. He puffed on his pipe, looked at the marks of Stubby's big boots in the soft ground and appeared puzzled.

"Did you stick up the train, honest?" he asked.

Stubby, hantured in surprise, spoke I said I didn't, lot of good it would do. The whole town's cleaned out so they can hunt me. They are ready to shoot me, trailing me night and day like their dogs. I have a little cabin back of Saw-buck Ridge and that Kate, the girl who worked at the Iackett Store, is sitting there now wondering if they've shot me yet. I would believe it? A fellow with a record has as much chance as a coyote. Take me in and we'll get it over."

After a while John spoke again. "Is that about the girl, Kate, true?"

"When we get up this hill you can see her light."

John Edwards turned Stubby over to the sheriff's office and became the town hero. He went next to the justice and, while a circle of admiring small boys stood around, wrote laboriously on a legal document which he said was an application for a reward. "I'll let Uncle Sam deliver it," he said with fine effect as he dropped the envelope in the slot.

He was at the station when the midnight train came in. The sheriff and the posses straggled in next day. They say at Four Buttes that all records for astonishing swear words were broken when the document Edwards had written was read. It was a signed confession from the rabbit hunter that he had held up the train and with it were directions for the finding of the rifled mailbags and letters.

"Stubby," said the sheriff almost reluctantly, "I've got to let you go. But if you didn't hold up the train, it isn't because you wouldn't if you had felt like it."

RHINE ARMY PAY DEMAND SENT ALLEES

Paris Gets U. S. Note Asking for $241,000,000 to Cover Cost of Keeping American Troops at German Border

Similar Messages Are Also Sent, Japan, England, Italy, Belgium and France; Claim Is Based on Versailles Pact

PARIS, March 22 (By the Associated Press).—The American note regarding the payments of the cost of the army of occupation in Germany, addressed to the European allies, reached the American embassy here yesterday and will be presented to the allies this afternoon. The note sets forth the American attitude in clear and forcible terms.

The attitude of the American government has been one of positive belief that such costs would be paid in full out of reparations received from Germany.

It has been said by officials here and the view is expected to be found in the note just despatched, that American troops were sent into Germany at the express request of the allied governments; that under the terms of the armistice, to which America was signatory, costs incurred by those troops were to be paid on an equal footing with bills contracted by the allied governments for similar services; that the American troops were sent in without thought of obtaining any privilege in the United States, and consequently the obligation for reimbursement for their maintenance is a solemn moral and legal duty.

The rights of the United States, it is also set forth informally, were secured also by agreement of the allies that the treaty of Versailles, providing for payment of costs of all armies of occupation in Germany, should apply equally to the United States although this country was not a signatory to that treaty.

CLAIM VESTED ON ARMISTICE.

It has been pointed out, also, that the separate treaty of peace between the United States and Germany, reserving to America all the rights accruing to the allies under the treaty of Versailles, had met with the expression of approval from the allied governments.

The United States consequently is expected to rest its case for payment of troops in the Rhine area upon the armistice, the treaty of Versailles and the separate treaties with Germany.

LONDON, March 22 (By International News Service).—George Harvey, American ambassador to England, is presenting a circular note to the allies, insisting upon equalization of payment of $241,000,000 for the upkeep of the American army of occupation on the Rhine, and asking that the allied powers recognize the validity of Washington claims, it was learned this afternoon.

NOTES ARE ALSO SENT JAPAN, BELGIUM.

WASHINGTON, March 22 (By the Associated Press).—Notes identical with that received in Paris from the American government for presentation to allied representatives there were being submitted by the American diplomatic officials to the governments of Belgium, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan. This statement was made today at the state department and disclosed for the first time that Japan and Belgium, with the other three, were to be informed as to the American position with respect to the demanded payment of American Rhine land occupation costs.

Unofficially it had been learned several days ago that the notes were to be sent to Great Britain, France and Italy.

State department officials said they expected to receive a reply from the British government probably within a few days.

FREE STATE OVERTHROW IS PROPOSED

Revolutionary Coup Against Dublin Government May Be Made by Republicans or the Adherents of De Valera

British Authorities Gravely Concerned by Strife in Ireland and Will Not Hesitate to Use Force to End It

By DANIEL O'CONNELL, International News Service Staff Correspondent.

DUBLIN, March 22.—A revolutionary coup to overthrow the government of the Irish Free State will be attempted next week, it was declared here this afternoon by Roderick O'Connor, chief engineer of the Irish republican army.

According to O'Connor, the movement against the Dublin government will be made by republicans or adherents of Eamonn de Valera. "It is certain a coup d'etat will be launched against the Collins-Griffith government next week," said O'Connor. "Despite the refusal of Arthur Griffith to allow the Irish republican army to hold a convention, it will be held anyhow on Sunday. Eighty per cent of the I. R. A. is loyal to the republic. The men will refuse to take orders from Griffith or Richard Mulcahy."

Griffith is president of the Dail Eireann. Mulcahy is minister of defense in the Irish provisional government. Michael Collins is minister of finance, but is really the "strong man" of the government.

Councilman Corcoran of County Connaught, who had been arrested by members of the Irish republican army, was released today. Corcoran was charged with recruiting police for the Irish Free State, causing disaffection in the I. R. A.

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

LONDON, March 22.—"It may be necessary to throw a cordon of British troops about the trouble spot along the Ulster border," Winston Churchill, minister for the colonies, announced in the House of Commons this afternoon. The situation in Ireland, Churchill declared, was growing steadily worse.

The British government is gravely concerned over the Irish situation, the colonial minister indicated, and will not hesitate to send troops to the aid of whichever side is attacked.

Any demand from Ulster for troops would be promptly complied with, Churchill said.

The view taken here is that rebellious factions in the south have organized to sabotage the Free State. Blame is laid upon Republican leaders, including Eamonn de Valera, for the trouble. It was announced in Commons that if the British government were forced to take a hand it would be "real war" with airplanes, tanks and artillery.

DESULTORY FIGHTING FROM FREE STATE SIDE.

BELFAST, March 22 (By the Associated Press).—Desultory fighting continued all day yesterday from the free state side of the border, along the frontier of counties Tyrone and Monaghan, mostly from snipers located in houses inside the boundary line, according to reports from the border received here today.

BEAUTY CONTEST AT U. C. NEAR END

List of Candidates Reduced to 12 and Judges Are in a Quandary.

BERKELEY, March 22.—The University of California today acclaimed its beauty to the world. The twelve "most beautiful" co-eds on the Berkeley campus from which will be chosen the "perfect" type of Western college maid have been made known after weeks of study of photographs by leading artists in faculty and student circles.

Blondes, brunettes and Titian-haired maidens were included impartially in the list of beauties, and which coloring will be chosen as befitting the typical California college lass now forms the subject of debate among the judges.

The twelve university beauties made their debut to the campus and to the public at large today through the medium of the "California Pictorial," student art magazine. Hundreds of photographs from all over the state were shown.

EDISON DENIES 'SENILE DECAY'

"Wizard" Charges Professor Was Discourteous in Reply to Questionnaire.

MADISON, Wis., March 22.—A letter which Thomas A. Edison said contains an implication of senile decay against him was made public here today. Edison sent it to the University of Wisconsin regents and President E. A. Birge of the university, with the suggestion that the author, Professor W. A. Scott, director of the university's course of research, "was very discourteous."

"Many of the gentlemen to whom the questionnaire was sent," Edison wrote, "have courteously taken great pains to prepare and send answers to my questions."

"Not so, however, with Mr. Scott, who has written me a very discourteous letter, not only declining to answer my questions, but implying senile decay because of my asking them."

In answer to the questions Edison said Professor Scott wrote that:

JURY GETS CASE OF YOUNG DODGE

Defense of Millionaire Accused of Driving While Drunk Scoffs Charge.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., March 22.—The case of John Duval Dodge, young Detroit millionaire, accused of driving an automobile while intoxicated, went to the jury today.

The defense rested its case in less than an hour, conceding, abandoning its plan to place Dodge on the stand in his own behalf.

Final arguments of counsel were brief, the prosecution reviewing the evidence since the jury had heard the testimony of one of three girls whom Dodge and a companion, Reid Earl of Kalamazoo, invited to drive with them, and asserting it had proved by its witnesses that Dodge was intoxicated at the time. The prosecutor also pointed out that one of the girls yesterday testified that during the ride Dodge had made improper advances to her.

WILL RATIFY PACIFIC PACT: UNDERWOOD

Democratic Leader, After a Conference at White House, Says Four-Power Treaty Will Receive Senators' O.K.

Flood of Prepared Speeches Precede Vote to Be Taken Friday; La Follette Calls It British-Japanese Scheme

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Confidence that the four-power Pacific treaty would be ratified by the senate was expressed today by Senator Underwood, Democrat leader, on leaving the White House after a conference with President Harding. The Alabama senator said he had no doubt that there would be sufficient votes to assure the treaty's ratification, although the vote might be close.

By ASSOCIATED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A flood of prepared speeches for and against the four-power Pacific treaty was loosed in the Senate today as the hour of unlimited debate came to an end under a unanimous consent agreement which will bring a final ratification vote Friday.

The one-hour limit on individual speeches was effective at 3 p. m. today, and several senators who had prepared long addresses jostled one another in bidding for recognition in the eleventh-hour crush of "canned oratory."

The four-power arrangement was assailed today by Senator La Follette as a scheme of Great Britain and Japan to secure co-operation and protection of the United States "in their further schemes of exploitation and imperialism."

DECLARIES EXTENSION OF ANGLIO-JAPANESE PACT.

He declared it was viewed by both British and Japanese statesmen as merely an extension of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, which it abrogates, and that in actual practice it would result in binding the United States to support the policies of London and Tokyo against such outside powers as China, Russia and Germany.

"I do not know," said Senator La Follette, "whether the British government would contend, if this proposed treaty went into effect, that its dominions should each have a separate vote under the treaty as they have under the League of Nations."

"At all events we do know that the Anglo-Japanese policy of aggression and imperialism which made the British empire and the Japanese empire close allies in the past will cause them to stand as a unit in opposition to the policies of any power in the Pacific ocean which dares to insist that the rights of weaker people there shall be recognized and protected. Whether they out-vote us six to one, or two to one, is not material."

During Senator La Follette's discussion of America's rights and duties under the four-power pact, Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, Nebraska, inquired who was to determine whether a question of controversy should come within the jurisdiction of the conference of the four nations.

"That whole subject is left open," replied Senator La Follette. "I assume the framers of this pact sought to make it as brief and to the point as possible, and to avoid having an involved document, or else it might never get through this body at all."

The Wisconsin senator added that there was nothing anywhere in the treaty's provisions which reserved to the United States the right to determine whether immigration, for example, should be a subject with which the conference of the powers may deal.

This brought from Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, the statement that one of the reservations to the treaty of Versailles most strongly insisted on was that which withheld to the United States the privilege of determining what questions should be within the jurisdiction of the league.

JOHNSON QUOTES JAPANESE MESSAGE.

Senator Johnson, Republican, California, contributed to the senate a telegram he said had been sent to President Harding by Motono Mochi Zuki, the Japanese opposition leader, on the latter's departure for the Washington conference, which he attended as an observer. The message was quoted as saying that, though the Japanese leader left the United States "full of joy," he enjoyed Mr. Harding to remember that "there are many things still to be adjusted under your leadership, including the fortification of Hawaii and the immigration question in California."

When Senator La Follette was reciting the consequences of Japan's policy in Korea and the Far East, Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, interrupted to say:

"It has come to me, from a source which I cannot reveal, but upon which I rely, that the pastor who opened the conference with prayer had in it an allusion to the merits of the blood of our saviour, Jesus Christ, and he was asked to strike it out, and he did strike it out."

"He denied his Christ," said Senator La Follette.

"Yes," replied Senator Watson, "and he did it because of a nation which at the very time was crucifying Him anew."

Senator Shortridge, Republican, California, who followed La Follette, urged caution, declaring the Senate debate might "lead one to suppose we were at war, marshaling our resources to strike Japan or Great Britain."

Senator Shortridge said, would not "strip the nation of any sovereign power." Any treaty which attempted to deprive Congress of the war-making power would be void.

HARDING APPEAL MAY HALT COAL MINERS' STRIKE

Demand That Differences Be Settled for Public's Sake Contemplated.

By PAUL R. MADDAN.
United Press Staff Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, March 22.—A public appeal by President Harding to coal operators and miners to settle their differences and avoid a nation-wide suspension of work April 1 may be made within a week.
It was learned authoritatively today that Harding is inclined toward such a move as a final effort to draw the bituminous operators into a national peace conference and enhance the chances of settlement in all districts.
President Harding has consulted Attorney General Clegg, it was learned, to find out what steps he might take toward backing up the move he had in inviting the bituminous operators to conference.
Daugherty told him, according to reliable information that he knew of no legal steps that might be taken by any agent of the government toward settlement before the fuel supply of the nation is imperiled by the walkout.
NEW YORK, March 22.—The great coal strike called for midnight, March 31, will be 100 per cent effective, officers of the United Mine Workers of America declared here today.
Reports from the anthracite and bituminous fields throughout the United States indicate that virtually every one of the 600,000 miners will obey the order to suspend work.
President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers, who issued the order here yesterday, believes there will be no rebel movement in the union ranks. He asserted the 90,000 miners of Illinois would cut with the rest, despite the fact that President Frank F. Farrington of the Illinois miners is quoted here as calling Lewis' action premature.
The mine union officials are going ahead with plans for the great walkout, just as if there were no chance of federal intervention or possible settlement of the trouble in any mine district.

Dry Abatement Suits Aimed at S. F. Restaurants

Actions Begun in Attempt to Close Five Places Under Prohibition Act.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Violators of the national prohibition act were seized with consternation today when the United States district court began abatement proceedings against five prominent downtown cafes and resorts, which, if successfully prosecuted, will mean the closing of the places for a year, the property remaining idle for that period.
The bombshell broke with the filing of the suits in the United States district court and the issuance of preliminary injunction by Federal Judge Franklin Rudkin preventing the removal or disposal of any of the property or merchandise of the places in the premises. The cafes and resorts concerned are: THE FLY TRAP, 73 Sutter street; CALIFORNIA MARKET CAFE, Spring and Summer streets; EL COMOLINO CAFE, 623 Broadway; IPSWICH BROTHERS, 617 Post street.
THE STRATFORD BEVERAGE PARLOR, 236 Geary street, was also named in the suits against the owners and operators of these resorts are only the forerunner of many similar proceedings, according to the federal officials.
Resultant of the investigation by Ralph Horr, senior vice commander of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, and affidavits by the men charging maltreatment, the Golden Poppy chapter of the veterans has passed resolutions demanding the immediate removal of Major J. M. Wheat as commanding officer of the Palo Alto government hospital.

Women Throng Scene Of Trial of Arbuckle

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Women today crowded the courtroom where Roscoe Arbuckle is on trial for the murder of Virginia Rappe. The cause of Virginia Rappe's death as revealed by medical experts.
Arbuckle is being tried a third time on charges of having been responsible for Miss Rappe's death.
Dr. William Ophuls, autopsy surgeon, was sharply cross-examined on testimony he gave yesterday to the effect that injuries probably caused by sexual intercourse led to peritonitis and Miss Rappe's death.
Two other physicians who attended the autopsy or who examined Miss Rappe's body after death were expected to testify during the day.

Davis Farm Picnic Set for April 29

DAVIS, March 22.—April 29 has been announced as the date of the fourteenth annual picnic day at the University Farm and the committee to handle the tremendous amount of work entailed in putting over an event which is second to the State Fair only as an attraction for farmers, have been appointed.
It is the opinion of the university authorities that this year, even more than any of the preceding years, sees a real need for a better understanding by the farmers of the problems confronting the College of Agriculture and by the College of Agriculture of the problems confronting the farmers. Picnic Day goes a long way toward promoting such an understanding so that every effort is being made this year to make the big annual event even more of a real Farmers' Day than ever.

PALO ALTO ARMY HOSPITAL CHIEF IS TRANSFERRED

Major Wheat, Object of Attack by Veterans, Removed to S. F. Post.

PALO ALTO, March 22.—Dr. R. H. Stanley arrived here today from Whipple Barracks, Ariz., to take charge of Veterans' hospital No. 24, succeeding Major Chester M. Wheat, whose administration has been the object of attacks by various organizations of war veterans.
Major Wheat has been transferred to the Marine hospital at San Francisco. Dr. Stanley's tenure here will be temporary, it was said.

Resultant of the investigation by Ralph Horr, senior vice commander of the Disabled Veterans of the World War, and affidavits by the men charging maltreatment, the Golden Poppy chapter of the veterans has passed resolutions demanding the immediate removal of Major J. M. Wheat as commanding officer of the Palo Alto government hospital.
Coincident with the passage of the resolutions the official attention of Washington was called to the alleged conditions existing in the local hospital through a telegram sent by Horr to President Harding.
Horr designated as a "self-advertising porch-climber" by Major Wheat, who denied the charges.
The most specific charge against the hospital was preferred, according to Horr, by Everett A. Austin, a mental patient at the hospital, who alleged in an affidavit that ether had been poured upon him by Dr. Paul E. Bowers of the hospital staff, when, due to illness, he did not move. Other charges involve intoxication on the part of the attaches.
"DRUNKENNESS RAMPANT."
"Drunkenness was rampant in the institution in January when I made my first investigation," said Horr today, "and there has been some slight improvement in this respect, but employees of the institution still go to other towns on drunks and secure immunity by posing as ex-soldiers or patients."
"Dr. Bowers, who has charge of the mental and nervous cases, was connected with the treatment of the criminal insane for fourteen years to handle the war men in the hospital he has been applying to some extent the methods he used in treating the criminally insane."
"In addition to the maltreatment there has been gross inefficiency in the management of the hospital. The case of Harry B. Northrop is an example. His discharge papers show that he was suffering from exophthalmic goitre and his case was diagnosed at the hospital as neurasthenia and no actual cause of discharge from the army."
MAJOR WHEAT'S REPLY.
In a statement issued by Major Wheat in answer to the charges of Horr, the inspector general's department completed only last week the semi-annual inspection of my hospital and if conditions had been what Horr charges the report would not have been favorable and charges would have been made before now.
"So far as Horr's accusation against myself are concerned I do not care to add to the publicity secured by a self-advertising porch-climber. He sneaked into the hospital by the back way out of visiting hours to secure what he terms evidence. None of us was aware of his visit until he had gone."

King George's Cold To Keep Him Indoors

LONDON, March 22.—King George, who is suffering from a slight cold and sore throat, must remain indoors several days, it was announced today.
The inspector general's department completed only last week the semi-annual inspection of my hospital and if conditions had been what Horr charges the report would not have been favorable and charges would have been made before now.
"So far as Horr's accusation against myself are concerned I do not care to add to the publicity secured by a self-advertising porch-climber. He sneaked into the hospital by the back way out of visiting hours to secure what he terms evidence. None of us was aware of his visit until he had gone."

STEPHENS ASKS SOLDIER BOND ISSUE SUPPORT

Governor Explains Proposal in Address to Richmond Lions.

RICHMOND, March 22.—Appealing to every voter to approve the soldier aid measure on the November ballot, Governor William D. Stephens addressed the weekly luncheon of Richmond Den of Lions at Courtyard club house yesterday afternoon. He spoke on subjects of interest to Californians, including state government, the Japanese problem and soldier aid.
Governor Stephens lauded California and urged that everyone boost for the state, "but if there is need of criticism," he said, "whisper it gently, for the little criticisms leveled at the state by Californians lead the way East and become headlines in eastern papers. Always be a booster for California, never a buster."
The governor asserted that California is one of the most economically administered states in the union. "There are states whose governments cost less than our own," he said, "but how many of you would prefer to live in Tennessee, for instance, where the cost of the state is less than ours? More than 50 per cent of our yearly appropriation for state maintenance," he said, "is used in the schools. We could cut the figure in half by closing the schools, but Californians have the reputation of possessing the highest grade of school buildings and the highest average personnel in its teacher force of any state in the union."

The governor's measure, Governor Stephens stressed as of great importance at the coming election. Under this act, he said, ex-service men could, after satisfying the Soldier Welfare Bureau at Sacramento, pick out a farm anywhere in the state where land is available. He would pay 10 per cent of the cost, and the state pays the 30 per cent balance, giving the ex-serviceman a loan which he would pay back the loan. Governor Stephens pointed out that the act would prove no drain on the state, since the farm buyers will be paying interest on the money loaned to them. "Not only will the act provide adequately for ex-servicemen, but it will bring desirable development of California land and mean greater production," he said.
Speaking of the Japanese problem, the governor declared it his belief that Japan and the United States will never resort to war over the California land question, "California belongs to you and me," he said, "and we will not let it go. There is no room here for people with divided allegiance."

Edison Resents Insinuations of "Senile Decay"

"after reading them over. I am convinced that nothing short of a treatise on the subject of money and banking would be adequate, and I haven't the time to write that much."
TECHNICAL BOOK WOULD GIVE INFORMATION, NOTE SAYS.
"It is my belief, however, the professor wrote, according to Edison, "that any good treatise, even any good elementary text book on the subject, would answer the most serious and such questions. They betray to me an utter lack of comprehension of even the A B C of the subject and I should consider that only a clear setting forth of the very elements of the subject would be adequate to set your mind straight."
REFERENCE TO AGE.
RESENTED BY EDISON.
"I doubt very much whether at your age and in what seems to be your present state of mind it would be worth anyone's while to attempt to teach you those elements."
Professor Scott today declared that Edison's letter was the most undiplomatic of his ever written. President F. A. Birge said that "there is no trouble of any sort between Professor Scott and Mr. Edison that I know anything about. I have not heard of any letter written by Professor Scott to Mr. Edison."
All regents and members of the university board of visitors have received letters from Edison in which the inventor points out that he feels a great courtesy has been shown him by Professor Scott.
Whether the matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the university board is not known.

$100,000 RAISED TO END FLOGGING TERROR IN TEXAS

Beating Given Father of Four Daughters Ends in Drastic Official Action.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
DALLAS, Texas, March 22.—The flogging given F. H. Etheridge, lumber dealer, 47, and father of four daughters, last night, after he had been seized for the purpose of taking three miles from the city in an automobile, together with another similar beating recently, was characterized as an outrage and drew from the leading city and county officers today.
Rewards totaling $2600 for the arrest of the unmasked men who whipped Etheridge have been offered.
A letter to Mayor Aldridge, received today, signed the Ku Klux Klan of Dallas, offered $1000. S. M. Kelly, business partner of Etheridge, declared friends had offered $1000 to place as much as $100,000 behind him if it were needed for his protection and prosecution of the offenders.
Etheridge was under personal guard today. He was at his office this morning and assisted in the investigation.
Etheridge said one of his assailants, under the influence of liquor, declared the lumberman was the sixty-third man whipped here.

BEAUMONT, Tex., March 22.—The Beaumont City Commission has offered $1000 reward for the arrest and conviction of any person implicated in the whipping and flogging and feathering here of Judge J. A. L. L. Garner, negro hotel porter, who was whipped by a band of men last week.
The city commission announced that a $1000 reward also would be paid for the arrest and conviction of any of the assailants of Dick Richards, negro hotel porter, who was whipped by a band of men last week.

BEAUMONT, Texas, March 22.—Notices were posted last night on the doors of the Blessed Sacrament church for negroes, which is endowed by the Drexels of Philadelphia, threatening to dynamite the church and to tar and feather the pastor, the Rev. A. A. Laplante, if he became known today when Sheriff T. H. Garner and Mayor B. A. Steinhagen received a communication of protest signed by more than a dozen citizens.

Edison Resents Insinuations of "Senile Decay"

"after reading them over. I am convinced that nothing short of a treatise on the subject of money and banking would be adequate, and I haven't the time to write that much."
TECHNICAL BOOK WOULD GIVE INFORMATION, NOTE SAYS.
"It is my belief, however, the professor wrote, according to Edison, "that any good treatise, even any good elementary text book on the subject, would answer the most serious and such questions. They betray to me an utter lack of comprehension of even the A B C of the subject and I should consider that only a clear setting forth of the very elements of the subject would be adequate to set your mind straight."
REFERENCE TO AGE.
RESENTED BY EDISON.

"I doubt very much whether at your age and in what seems to be your present state of mind it would be worth anyone's while to attempt to teach you those elements."
Professor Scott today declared that Edison's letter was the most undiplomatic of his ever written. President F. A. Birge said that "there is no trouble of any sort between Professor Scott and Mr. Edison that I know anything about. I have not heard of any letter written by Professor Scott to Mr. Edison."
All regents and members of the university board of visitors have received letters from Edison in which the inventor points out that he feels a great courtesy has been shown him by Professor Scott.
Whether the matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the university board is not known.

Jockey Held in Narcotic Roundup

NEW YORK, March 22.—Frank Dunbar, arrested here today charged with having narcotics in his possession illegally, told detectives that he was on one time one of the best known jockeys on American race tracks. The officers declared they found Dunbar smoking an opium pipe, and that in his room were found raw opium and smoking paraphernalia.
"In 1907," he said, "I rode in Oakland, Cal. My last race was run in Montreal last summer. Among the famous horses I rode were Song and Wine, Blue Bonnet, Mrs. Price and Katie K."

BUREAU TO FAKE TESTIMONY FOR DIVORCES BARED

NEW YORK, March 22.—A "divorce bureau" which furnished false testimony to men and women seeking to break their marital ties has been unearthed in the arrest of Jack Berkowitz, of 224 West Thirty-seventh street, according to District Attorney J. S. Banton today.

Berkowitz is in Tombs prison in default of $10,000 bail and will be assigned tomorrow. He was arrested on charges of subornation of perjury after Miss Helen Thomas, a policewoman, had set a trap for him by pretending to seek false evidence to secure her a divorce. She alleged that Berkowitz promised to obtain the "evidence" for $200.

An affidavit against Berkowitz charges him with furnishing false evidence to the plaintiff in the divorce action of Mrs. Sidney Hirsch last December. Berkowitz is alleged to have maintained rooms in Thirty-seventh street, where false raids were staged and where men and women were "made up" to resemble the actual principals in divorce actions.

WARRANT IS OUT FOR S. F. BROKER

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—E. L. Lorden, who has carried on a brokerage business in Oakland, San Jose and San Francisco, known as Aftergood & Company, was cited to appear before the State Corporation Commission on Monday to show cause why his license should not be revoked. The complaint against him was lodged today by A. Lindholm, of San Jose, who claims to have lost $1000 through investing in Lorden's securities.

Yesterday a warrant was issued for Lorden's arrest on a charge of embezzlement. The complaint was made by Bella Gilmore of the Hotel Vendome, San Jose.
Accusations have been made, the police say, against Lorden, declaring that he has misappropriated upward of $20,000 given him by clients to invest.

GAINED NEW ENERGY WITH EVERY DOSE

Twelve Years of Suffering From Stomach Trouble Quickly Ended When She Got Tanlac, Declares Mrs. Sharp. Husband Also Restored.

"Tanalac has done my husband and myself both a world of good and I pin my faith to it as a medicine of extraordinary merit," said Mrs. Nancy Sharp, 921 Camulus street, Los Angeles, Calif.
"I had been disappointed so often during the past twelve years, during all of which time I had a bad form of stomach trouble, that I had lost faith in all medicines and it took a great deal of persuasion for me to even give Tanlac a trial."
"Before I had finished the second bottle I knew that I had found just what I needed. I could just feel I was gaining new life and energy with every dose. It acted upon my stomach and in a short time I was able to eat anything I desired, which was certainly a novel experience, as for twelve years I had lived upon a very rigid and restricted diet."
"Tanalac also built my husband up wonderfully and at our home we look upon it as our standby."
Tanalac is sold by all good druggists.—Advertisement.

S. F. BAR FETES ROOT AT DINNER; TRUST WORK HIT

Lawyer-Diplomat Opposed to Financial Houses Doing Lawyers' Duties.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Members of the San Francisco Bar Association last night officially welcomed Elihu Root, American statesman, lawyer and diplomat, and former secretary of state and war, at a banquet given in his honor in the colonial ballroom of the Hotel St. Francis.

The affair was attended by hundreds of members of the association and of men of prominence in the bay district.

In his address, Root touched on the "California Lawyers' Bill," by inference, and opposed the work of lawyers being done by trust companies and banks. He said when a State compels one individual to pass an examination, to practice law, it cannot allow others to establish themselves in the profession by issuing certificates or to establish laws of their own. "It is absurd to have one big bar and forty little bars," he said.

"JUSTICE AND LIBERTY."

"The bar of California and other States should do all in their power to bring about the establishment and maintenance of the fundamental principles of America—justice and liberty," said Root.

Root said it is difficult for Europeans and Americans to understand each other in the matter of law. "I don't undertake to say their system of law is not good for them, but our system, based upon justice, is the best for us," he said.

"The law cannot exist without the respect of the people," said Root, "and it is the duty of the lawyers to so present it, guard it and practice it that it will be respected and obeyed by the people." At another part of his talk he said that "quality must maintain the professional if it is expected to hold the respect of the people."

AMERICAN STANDARD.

"There must be some means—to intellectually and morally—to hold certain types to the high American standard, and we must find it and keep it."

Jeremiah F. Sullivan, toastmaster, presented the former secretary of war, and called upon Judge William H. Langdon, who welcomed the guest of the evening.

Those at the speaker's table included: Elihu Root, Jeremiah F. Sullivan, Judge William H. Langdon, M. H. de Young, H. C. Wyckoff Jr., H. C. Wyckoff Sr., James M. Trout, Judge John Hunt, Judge Lucien Shaw, Colonel G. V. Packard, U. S. A., General C. W. Kennedy, U. S. A., both of the Ninth Army corps; Judge John E. Richards, Judge W. W. Morrow, Judge William P. Lawlor, Judge Thomas J. Lennon, Judge William H. Wasto, Judge William H. Hunt.

OTIS' DISMISSAL IS UPHELD BY SERVICE BOARD

Policeman Dropped by Colbourn Loses Appeal; Gross Trial April 11

The action of Commissioner Frank Colbourn in dismissing Patrolman Joseph Otis was sustained late last night by the civil service board after a hearing concerning a fight on Linden street, near Twelfth, on February 7, when Otis was alleged to have been present and neither arrested the fighters nor reported the incident.

One of the battlers, J. P. Thompson, was an ex-police officer. Otis alleged that at the time of the fight, when A. R. Church was badly mauled, he was absent from duty by permission. Police officials testified that they had given Otis further time in which to report, as he said his auto had a puncture, but did not intend to give any impression that he was to be on duty. Otis, however, did not report for duty.

Many police officers and citizens testified as to the various episodes of the night. Most of the testimony was on minor points.

The civil service hearing of Lee Gross, former deputy food inspector, recently discharged, was set for April 11.

WHITTHORNE & SWAN—Washington Street at Eleventh

Spectacular drama of Wall Street and Mexican revolution, full of romance and adventure, with GLORIA SWANSON as the scintillating fashionable wife. HANS HANKE at the piano in brilliant concert numbers.

Paraded among the upper four hundred, dressed to look like a million to attract Wall street magnates with her style and exotic beauty, she was but a business asset to her husband. Yet she craved love and found it, fought for it in a desperate battle between her husband, her lover and a swarthy Mexican bandit chief in "Her Husband's Trademark," a thrilling melodrama, especially built around Gloria Swanson's sinuous beauty, among gorgeous settings. The music lovers of Oakland are much enthused over Hans Hanke's brilliant rendition of what is considered one of the few most difficult piano compositions, the Schuiz-Evlen transcription of "The Blue Danube."—Advertisement.

EXPLORER SPENDS NINE MONTHS IN CHINA AND TIBET

F. Kingdom Ward Collects Over 1000 Varieties of Plants for University.

RANGOON, March 22.—F. Kingdom Ward, explorer and author, has arrived in Rangoon from a nine months' trip into China, five months of which were spent in the independent kingdom of Muli, in Chinese Tibet.

Ward spent most of his time on this trip in collecting plants for Edinburgh University, bringing back with him about a thousand varieties of rare plants, some of which are new and unclassified. He also found four new species of the blue poppy. These, with their seeds, have been shipped to Edinburgh.

After traveling through northern Burma and a part of China, he entered Chinese Tibet and headed for Muli, a small kingdom, covering about 15,000 square miles, with many high mountain peaks, some of which are over 20,000 feet above the sea. Ward said that was ruled by a powerfully built man, a lama, who lived in an enormous monastery, surrounded by a guard of 6000 warriors.

Ward found, on arriving there, that the lama was suffering from disease, but he soon recovered under the explorer's treatment and thereafter Ward was given quarters in the monastery for himself and a companion and his servants were well looked after.

In Muli and the adjoining kingdoms the party found that the villages, though few and sparsely settled, are all extremely prosperous. This is explained by an abundance of gold, which is washed out of the river sand in many places. White men are not welcomed in these places, as the rulers suspect that they come for gold.

PAY DELAYED—SUICIDE. by Idah McGlone Gibson

Virginia Fairfax, daughter of the first families of Virginia, rebels against the puritanical rule of her grandfather and, lured by Edmund, runs away to become a modern picture actress. Arriving in Los Angeles, she meets Gloria Summers, who is in the movies. They become warm friends. They meet Herbert Richardson, a wealthy young man who has been interested in Gloria. Gloria accepts, for herself and Virginia, Herb Richardson's invitation to a party.

VIRGINIA DANCES.

"I am frightened to death, Billy," I said as my newly found friend led me to the dance floor.

"Oh," I added in dismay as I thought how conspicuous I should be in my awkward attempt to learn dancing in the midst of these graceful couples, "I thought you told me that you were going into some secluded corner."

"I took about the four corners, my dear, and see if any of them are secluded. No one will notice you on the dance floor. They are all thinking of themselves. By the way, Virginia, I have never been able to get the point of view of you girls. You seem to think that everyone is watching you even in a theater."

"But I have never been to a theater in my life, Billy."

"What?" he exclaimed in astonishment. "Do you mean it? Well, you will do it when you go."

"Do what?"

"Just what the other girls do. You'll take your vanity box—some even take their make-up boxes—and when the lights go up between acts you will scrutinize yourself in its mirror and put an extra bit of calamine on your nose which had altogether too much before."

"Have I too much on my nose, Billy?"

"No, but you have just commenced the practice. Wait until you have been in the movies a month or two. But do you realize you are two-steping, my dear?"

"I hadn't realized it until that moment I had been so interested in Billy's ideas of make-up. The moment he called my attention to it I lost the knack of the dance and stepped all over his feet."

Billy grinned understandingly and stopped to reassure me. We had reached the outer fringe of dancers where we had considerable room.

"Too bad I broke the spell, Virginia. You were doing wonderfully well. Now let's try again. Just put your left hand lightly on my shoulder. Don't try to watch my feet. Just feel the music. It is two steps one side and two steps to the other. Don't try to swing your body. Dance from your hips down. Now you have tensed your body. Relax, relax, my dear Virginia."

"Oh, Billy, I can't do it."

"Yes, you can. You've done wonderfully well for the first time on the floor. Try closing your eyes. Maybe that will help and just listen for the one, two, one, two of the music."

"No, don't count. If you dance by count you will never get into the poetry of motion."

"There, that is fine," commended Billy.

Just as the music stopped I stepped all over his feet and he broke the little prayer of thankfulness to think the ordeal was over. When the music started up again Billy placed his hand lightly under my left arm.

"Now, Billy, do we have to go all through it again?"

"Oh, you'll like it this time." "Billy, you are a dear to help me," and I resolved to take some private lessons as soon as possible.

"You are doing very much better this time, Virginia," he assured me as I managed in some way to keep my rebellious feet in time. I found that closing my eyes did help some and at last I got over my panic at the thought of Billy bumping me into someone.

The music stopped and Billy taking pity on me plotted me back to the table instead of dancing the second encore.

"How did you like it?" smiled Tony Melville who happened to be sitting alone.

Before I could reply Billy asked, "Why, where is Dorothy?"

"John Alden took pity on her and asked her to dance. It is no place for an old man like me at one of these gatherings. But Virginia hasn't answered my question. Was it such an ordeal? You look as though you enjoyed it."

"It was duck soup for her," volunteered Herb Richardson who was just seating Ria. Then he added, looking at me, "You were thrilled, weren't you?"

"I don't know whether I was or not, Mr. Richardson. If you call being frightened to death and having a sense of making your partner extremely uncomfortable a thrill, then you are right and I was thrilled."

"You are altogether too clever, young woman," said Tony Melville in my ear.

"No, sir, not. I am only honest."

"Then it is a shame that more girls don't follow the system."

By this time I had eaten altogether too much. Food that I had before me and I found that I liked it. The men had left the table occasionally and as they came back I caught the odor of whisky and I saw Ria's frowns growing blacker and blacker.

Herb Richardson grew better humored after each trip and his attentions to Ria became more pronounced.

I heard him say, "After all, my girl, you are the only woman who supplies any variety in my life. I can count on all the rest of them to do the same tame thing."

"I don't know whether that is a compliment or not, Herb."

"I know it is. But come on let's go to the Turkish Village for our coffee," he said, addressing the whole party.

Chicago Registration Now Past Million

CHICAGO, March 22.—The registered voting population of Chicago passed the one million mark yesterday, the final day of registration before the primary election, April 11. Yesterday's registration was 150,354. With those previously on the poll books, the total registration, including men and women, is 1,037,289.

HIGHER RAILROAD FARES. SANTIAGO, Chile, March 21.—(United Press.)—Considerable press criticism has been directed recently against the Federal railway administration for its continued policy in raising passenger rates. The last raise of 50 per cent on first-class fares is stated to bring the increase up to 130 per cent of the original first-class tariff, and as a result many of those who formerly always traveled first-class have been driven into the second and in some instances the highly uncomfortable third-class carriages.

DOUGHBOYS FROM RHINE WATCH ARE LOATHE TO LEAVE

Coblentz Also Regrets Departure of Americans, Says -Burgomaster.

COBLENZ, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Officials and merchants in the Rhine area which has been occupied for many months by American soldiers are discontent over their prospective departure. The merchants foresee a big slump in business, while the officials are loath to go through the process of getting acquainted with a new army.

"It is with regret that we hear of the withdrawal of the Americans," said Dr. Russell, ober burgomaster of Coblentz today. "The American forces in Germany have done much to alleviate suffering among the poor, and it is the poor who will miss the Americans more than the others."

PORTLAND, Maine, March 22.—Doughboys of the American army of occupation in Germany have not been suffering from homesickness. When two battalions of the crack fifth infantry, last but one of the American regiments remaining on the Rhine, arrived here today on the transport Cantigny, the burden of response to words of welcome was, "We are glad to be back home, but we could have been happy in Germany for a long time."

Colonel Harry E. Knight said he felt that ninety per cent of the officers and men and their wives, some of the latter German girls, would have been eminently satisfied to remain in Germany indefinitely.

PARIS, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Two French divisions will replace the American troops on the Rhine, whose withdrawal to the United States was ordered by Secretary of War Weeks. It was announced today. This will make a total of eight French divisions in the occupation area.

General De Castelnau, chairman of the army commission, told the correspondent today he deeply regretted the departure of the American boys from the Rhine.

BOYCOTT DENIED BY LABOR UNION

BAKERSFIELD, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Kern County Building Trades Council, at a meeting last night, adopted a resolution denying that any "boycott" existed in Bakersfield, as charged by the Builders' Exchange in a communication sent to the labor body several days ago. The Builders' Exchange threatened to put the "American plan" into effect unless a "boycott" said to be in effect against certain stores in Bakersfield, was lifted by March 24.

C. Wallace Watson, acting secretary of the Building Trades Council, said that no boycott existed, but that the unions were following their usual custom of patronizing only the shops where goods were sold that bore the union label.

The resolution adopted by the Building Trades Council said that "no official boycott exists in Bakersfield and therefore we cannot ratify a boycott that does not exist."

It said also that the Building Trades Council considered the agreement between the unions and the Builders' Exchange, made last September and which expires next September, was "as binding now as when first made."

Woman Succumbs in Bakersfield Court

BAKERSFIELD, March 22.—Mrs. Mary E. Fildes of Taft, 65 years old, died suddenly from heart disease yesterday afternoon while appearing as witness in an automobile damage suit in the Kern county courthouse. The circumstances of her death were similar to those that attended the death of Otto F. Brandt, Los Angeles capitalist, who also died suddenly in a courtroom last week.

When called upon to testify Mrs. Fildes asked if she might make her statement in private, and when taken to an ante-room suddenly collapsed. She lived only a few minutes.

$850,000 "BLUE BOY" PAINTING AT NEW HOME

LOS ANGELES, March 22.—"Blue Boy," Gainsborough's masterpiece, for which Henry E. Huntington is said to have paid $850,000, has arrived at its new owner's home at San Marino, near here. It was accompanied from New York by Sir Joseph Duveen, a member of the firm which purchased the painting from the Duke of Westminster for a reputed price of £170,000.

On the way west the painting was guarded night and day.

APPEAL FOR LEPERS. MANILA, P. I., March 22.—After an inspection of the leper colony at Cullion Island yesterday, Governor-General Leonard Wood telegraphed an urgent appeal to the people of the Philippines to assist the lepers by donations of clothing and reading matter. Out of 5000 lepers, only 1500 are receiving treatment, according to General Wood. The colony contains 700 children under 12 years.

How To Really Save On Cost of Painting

FIRST, find out what good paint is, for that is where you start to save on paint. We spend more to make paint for your economy as follows:

We use only the best materials in Fuller's Specification House Paints—PIONEER WHITE LEAD, pure linseed oil, zinc and finest colors.

We super-purify the lead in a special purifier. Then we make the lead so fine that it will pass through a silk screen with 40,000 meshes to the square inch.

The "whiter" lead means clearer-toned colors. The extreme fineness means better mixing quality, greater covering capacity, more ease in spreading—a paint that's always uniform and smooth.

Such paints when applied form a beautiful elastic, tough, protective coat that stays. They are known as "Fuller's Specification House Paints."

Where "Cheap" Paints Fail

Don't Figure Paint Economy as "Cost per Gallon."

"Cheap" paints can't compete with good paints in economy. "Cheap" paint covers less—you buy more gallons. It is harder to spread, requires more work—so you pay more labor cost. Your "saving" in less cost per gallon is very quickly eaten up.

Cheap paint starts to crack in twelve months. Good paint remains good five or more years. It is really the cheap paint that is expensive. Don't allow surfaces to rot—it costs less to paint them.

There is no real cost in painting with the best paint. Depreciation of an unpainted building far exceeds the cost of paint.

Free Advice on Painting

ASK our agent for our free advice. He will show you a color card which shows 32 shades of this desirable paint.

We have a Fuller Specification Department which will tell you all about the most desirable color schemes, color harmony and those other details you want to know.

Take advantage of Fuller House Paints. Take steps to paint now. Don't let weather depreciate your investment.

Comfort Station in Lakeside Park Voted

The board of park directors voted yesterday to establish a new comfort station in Lakeside park, near the band stand. Architect Howard Gilkey has been requested to design an artistic station and bids will be called for in a few weeks.

Because of the present fire menace from brush at Joaquin Miller park the park directors decided to make a formal request that the fire department send a force of men to clear away this brush, or that the city council set some of the unemployed on the job. The situation at the park invites a conflagration because of the great clusters of dead trees and dry brush, according to Fire Chief Sam Short.

"Tea for Three" to Be Produced by High School Cast

ROBERTA WELLS, Greek Theater player, who is to take part in "Tea for Three" at Technical High School.

Fifth of Series of Plays to Be Given Friday Night at Greek Theater.

The fifth production of the series of plays at the Oakland Technical High school by the Greek Theater Players will be "Tea for Three" by Roi Cooper Megrue, which will be performed on Friday night, March 24, at 8:15 p. m. This play, which had a run of over a year in New York, is an adaptation of a Viennese play dealing with the "eternal triangle." Megrue adaptation creates a novel situation out of this somewhat hackneyed theme. Only four people appear in the action: the husband, the wife, the friend and the maid.

Mary Morris plays the wife, Sam Hume plays the friend, Baldwin McGaw plays the husband, Roberta Wells plays the maid.

BIBLICAL STORY WILL BE FILMED IN HOLY LAND

JERUSALEM, March 22.—Twenty stars of the American film world arrived in Jerusalem recently to prepare for the filming of the Old Testament story of King David.

The big scene in the play is to be the fight between David and Goliath, which will be staged a few miles north of this city. Biblical accuracy is not strictly to be adhered to, since the scenario provides a love scene after the battle.

About 5000 persons are to be employed in the filming of the play. Five thousand sheep, 1000 camels and 2000 goats are also to be used.

This will be the first time a production of this magnitude has been filmed in the Holy Land. Apart from the appropriateness of the country for the filming of Biblical stories, it is declared that Palestine is unsurpassable for film productions owing, first, to its natural beauty, and second, to the clarity of the atmosphere.

Niles C. of C. Book Plans Are Discussed
NILES, March 21.—Specifications for the booster booklet to be published by the Niles Chamber of Commerce were discussed at the weekly luncheon meeting of the members yesterday noon.
A booklet, containing 32 pages of reading matter and illustrations depicting the agricultural and industrial activities of Niles, was favored by the majority of the members after a plan of financing the proposition had been made.
Work on the booklet will commence immediately and it is believed that within a couple of months copies will be ready for distribution in the larger cities of the country.

Judgment Withheld In Liquor Case
SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Methods said to have been used by prohibition agents to induce persons to violate the prohibition regulations were disapproved of in the U. S. District court yesterday. Federal Judge Frank H. Judkin suspended judgment in the case of two defendants until today. They were Thomas Murphy, a bell boy, and Frank Harvey, an elevator pilot. Both were employed in a local hotel. Duly Simpson, known as Simpson, and A. H. Rinkel, registered at the hotel. Later they are said to have obtained liquor by stating that they were "desperately ill." Judge Rudkin said that if it were not for the late discovery were induced to violate the law, he did not approve of such methods. The liquor, it was brought out in the testimony, was obtained outside the hotel.

VALLECITA MEN EXPLORE CAVES 500 FEET DEEP
VALLECITA, March 22.—At last the bottom chamber of Moaning Cave has been attained, setting at rest forever the death of the wonderful home in the mountains. The lowest point is just 500 feet below the surface. Dan Malatesta of this place was the first man to reach the bottom, being lowered by a rope over a precipice at the bottom of the third chamber by his companions, Addison Carlson and John Eltringham. They then made the rope secure, improvised a rope ladder and went down.

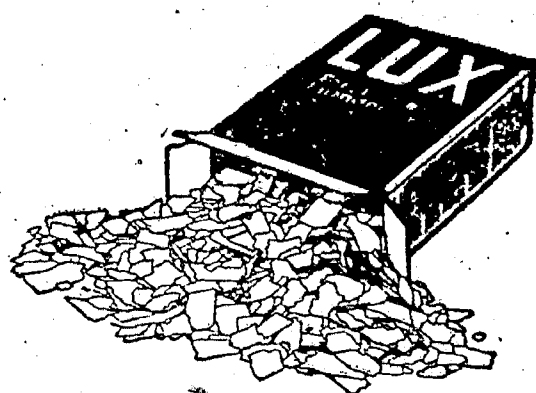

The lowest chamber they declared to be beautiful in snow white stalactites. Below their feet, they declared, could be heard a rushing sound as of water swirling through an underground river.
Butler, who will endeavor to have it called up under a rule possibly for consideration prior to presentation of the navy appropriation bill for the next fiscal year.
As finally agreed to the measure would reduce from five to two the congressional distribution of appointments to Annapolis, but without affecting the status of men now at the academy, or those to be admitted next fall, except that more than 200 members of each graduating class shall receive commissions.

MYSTERY MURDER OF PAIR REVEALED
BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
SALT LAKE CITY, March 22.—Mystery surrounds the deaths of Charles Bradford and his nephew, George Bradford, who were found shot and killed six miles east of Monticello, Southeast Utah, Monday afternoon, according to word received here today.

The Bradfords were on their way home to their ranch, ten miles east of Monticello, after a business trip to town, when they were shot. The team driven by the men reached the ranch driverless and Mrs. Charles Bradford discovered blood on the wagon seat. The sheriff was called and the body of George Bradford was found on the roadway Monday night.
The body of Charles Bradford was found about a half mile from where the nephew's body was discovered. Sheriff Lynn Hyde declared that he was convinced murder had been committed, but so far he has been unable to unearth any clues leading to the slayers.

Wishing for sleep is a poor way to get it
A LITTLE wisdom in the daytime is a better assurance of rest than any amount of anxious wishing when nerves are a-jangle at night.
What you do at noon often has more influence on sleep than what you want and hope for, at midnight.
Coffee's drug element, caffeine, whips up the nerves, and when its use is continued there's usually a penalty which no amount of mental effort can avoid.
The part of wisdom, as so many thousands have found, is to turn away from nerve-stimulation and adopt rich, delicious Postum as the mealtime drink. Postum delights the taste, but brings no disturbance to nerves or digestion. Even the little children can share in the enjoyment of Postum at any meal.
It's better to anticipate warnings than to be driven by them.
It's better to encourage and preserve sound nerves and complete health than to listen to the clock ticks at night and say, "I wish!"
You can get Postum wherever good food or drink is sold and served. An order today may be the beginning, for you, of the great satisfaction and comfort which so many others have found in Postum.
Your grocer has both forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Young Girls Need Care
FROM the age of twelve a girl needs all the care the thoughtful mother can give. Many a woman has suffered years of pain and misery—the victim of thoughtlessness or ignorance of the mother who should have guided her during this time.
If she complains of headaches, pains in the back and lower limbs, or if you notice a slowness of thought, nervousness or irritability on the part of your daughter make life easier for her.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted for such conditions. It can be taken in safety by any woman, young or old.

Greenville, Del.—"I was under the impression that my eldest daughter had some internal trouble as ever since the first time her sickness appeared she had to go to bed and even had to quit school once for a week. I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound myself so I gave it to her and she has received great benefit from it. You can use this letter for a testimonial if you wish, as I can not say too much about what your medicine has done for us."
Mrs. Wm. S. Hughes, Greenville, Del.
Wauson, O.—"My daughter always had backache and legache at certain periods and could not be on her feet. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls so much good so she began to take it. That is two years ago and she is a different girl since then, able to do any work she wants to do—and so well and strong. We recommend the Vegetable Compound to mothers with ailing daughters."

NO one is in a better position to know how to wash silk, woolen, or fine cotton, than the manufacturers of these products. It is a matter of business to these manufacturers that the lovely fabrics and garments they make should receive careful laundering.

One careless washing, for instance, may ruin a silk blouse. A baby's woolen shirt or band will shrink or yellow almost beyond recognition in three careless washings.

When this happens, the manufacturers of the fabric or garment are held responsible by their customers.

For this reason, all of the manufacturers listed above felt that it was essential for them to work out the safest way to wash the materials and garments they make.

They had thorough washing tests made by the domestic science department of a famous university. Samples of silks, woolens, linens and fine cottons were laundered the average number of times. Careful records were kept and the washed samples compared, after each laundering, with samples of the material which had never been washed.

As a result, all of these manufacturers are recommending Lux to their customers. They know that Lux could not stand up under these severe tests unless it was absolutely pure and mild.

They say without reservation that Lux is safe—that if water alone won't harm a fabric or color, Lux can't.

Lux is sold everywhere. Get a package from your grocer or department store today. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

A CHANGE OF POLICY.

Issuance of orders by Secretary of War Weeks requiring the return of all American troops on the Rhine by July 1st next marks a significant change of policy by the American government. Only a few weeks ago it was announced to be the intention of the government to reduce materially the American Rhine army, but to leave there indefinitely a force of 2200 men and 167 officers as a formal sign of American cooperation in enforcing the military terms of the armistice and the Versailles treaty. This change of policy has been ordered by President Harding. While there is no official explanation of it there need be no doubt that it is the result of the action of the Allied governments in "hogging" all the reparations payments made by Germany and so far refusing to allot any of the amount to the United States to defray the expenses of the American Rhine army. It was agreed by all the Allied and Associated powers that out of the first twenty billion gold marks from Germany the expense of the armies of occupation was to be paid.

Probably the President has concluded that if the Allies are to follow this sharp practice and retain money due this government the expense of maintaining an armed force on the Rhine will be discontinued forthwith. That is a logical conclusion. It is a proper and adequate basis for withdrawal of the troops.

According to news despatches from Paris, it is the view of the Allied members of the Reparations Commission and of the governments of France and Great Britain that if the United States desires to press her claim for the money due her under the armistice and Versailles treaty, an understanding should be reached on two points. This, it is suggested, might be effected by an exchange of notes.

First, the Allies desire, in return for their recognition of American rights under the Berlin treaty, recognition by this government of Allied rights under the Versailles treaty. Second, the Allies desire it recognized that America's sharing in the benefits of Allied enforcement machinery under the Versailles treaty, such as that for the collection of debts, implies American assistance in operating the machinery.

The first point should be easy to settle. The Berlin treaty between Germany and the United States provides that all the rights, privileges and advantages accruing to the United States under the Versailles treaty are confirmed in the Berlin treaty. Thus by confirming American rights under the Versailles treaty America and Germany recognize all Allied rights under that treaty. In fact the Berlin treaty draws all its vitality, all its effectiveness, from the Versailles agreement.

The second point is more difficult to dispose of. While the United States recognizes the Allied rights under the Versailles treaty, and the necessity to maintain some effective machinery to enforce those rights, it must reserve judgment in every specific case as to the necessity and manner of using the enforcement machinery. It cannot agree in advance to follow the orders of the Reparations Commission and the Allied Council of Ambassadors for the employment of armed force, maintenance of a boycott or other enforcement devices.

But the adjustment of these points is quite beside the obligation of the Allied governments to turn over to the United States $240,000,000 now due on account of the expenses of the American section of the Allied army of occupation on the Rhine. That expenditure was incurred by virtue of explicit agreement in principle and detailed action with an Allied program of enforcement of treaty rights, the maintenance of the Rhine advance until certain vital provisions of the Versailles Treaty and the Armistice agreement were met by Germany. There is no question as to the validity of the claim. That is established under the agreements in question.

In simple phrase, the Allied governments plan to hold this money due as a pecuniary inducement or coercion to obtain further cooperation from the United States. It is a transparent and rather cheap adventure. The United States must, of course, repulse it and demand payment of illegally withheld German reparations money notwithstanding. Complete removal of the American army from the right is a sign of distrust of Allied good intentions; it may not hurt the Allied governments, but it will do them no good.

tion from the United States. It is a transparent and rather cheap adventure. The United States must, of course, repulse it and demand payment of illegally withheld German reparations money notwithstanding. Complete removal of the American army from the right is a sign of distrust of Allied good intentions; it may not hurt the Allied governments, but it will do them no good.

A MESSAGE FROM OUTSIDE.

The coming of Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador at Washington, to deliver the Charter Day address at the University of California, is a peculiarly happy circumstance. The causes of self-congratulation by U. C. are largely apart from the fact that Sir Auckland is a distinguished diplomatic representative of a foreign government, a soldier and useful citizen of a foreign country.

It is deserving of more serious attention that Sir Auckland is a distinguished educator who has contributed notably to the cultural life and standards of this continent. It is as a fellow educator who has rendered valuable service that President Barrows of the university has invited him to participate in the Charter Day celebration.

For many years before the war, and prior to his being knighted by the British king for valuable service in that struggle, Sir Auckland Geddes was of the faculty of McGill University at Montreal. So as an educator his career has been more particularly placed in the neighboring country on the north, where the work of building the educational system on this continent is also being carried on in the same energetic, patient and laborious manner as in the United States.

It is well that the touch of fellowship is felt, however light, between the universities of Canada and the United States. And it will be particularly interesting, as it should be useful, to hear the exposition of ideals and opinions of one so competent of judgment but who has been a close observer of rather than a participant in the university life of the United States. Sir Auckland Geddes reflects the spirit of the New World rather than the Old. His frankness, courage, industry and forthrightness is something greatly admired in this country and the more so because it is tempered by a fine background of cultural training, attainments and experience.

THE MEASURE OF AGE.

Hadji Tagiev, a Mussulman of Baku, was for several years an oil king whose wealth was more than sufficient to command all that he desired—until the Bolshevik destroyers came to the Baku country, confiscated all the oil properties, burned everything above ground, suspended operations and made mendicant pampers out of all the people that had subsisted on the oil industry.

And Hadji Tagiev was ruined with the rest. He was 101 years of age and those who thought at all about him said he would not live much longer, now that the grief of lost fortune had fallen upon him. But they were mistaken. He went to work again, at his original trade of stonemason. He now works with his hands as of yore and reminds his neighbors that "A man is not old so long as he can work."

That may be Mussulman philosophy, but it is good philosophy for any individual. Age is not always counted in years; it is more correctly measured by the spirit and the capacity for work.

Marshal and Madame Joffre of France have sailed from Shanghai, after a prolonged tour of China and Japan, and are due to arrive in San Francisco on April 6. California will have as cordial a reception for the French commander who fought the first battle of the Marne and saved Paris as it had for the commander who fought the last battle of the Marne and saved France.

When did it happen? "Stocks and bonds thieves invade Wall street."

SOCIALISTS AND CONGRESS.

The announcement that Victor Berger, the plausible Milwaukee Socialist, is going to run for Congress again from the fifth Wisconsin district is not at all alarming, in view of the fact that he was decisively beaten in the last election by Stafford, Republican, and that no particular change of sentiment in the district has been observable since that time. It should not be inferred, however, that there is a likelihood that the Socialist representation will be confined, either in the next Congress or several ensuing Congresses, to one lone member from New York City. All signs point to a rather raucous and disorganized condition, so far as the old parties are concerned, in the congressional canvass next fall, and it would not be surprising if two or three Socialists were elected from constituencies in the large cities.

In the present condition of the world, the surprising fact is that the Socialists have not attained a larger membership in our legislative bodies, State and national. Under any system of minority or proportional representation they would be more largely represented. Socialists have a mistaken notion of the proper function of government, and a good many of them are finding that out, but their numbers are not so large as to threaten our constitutional system in any way, and these numbers are not likely to become much larger. In the case of Berger, who was beaten in the Wisconsin district where Socialism had been strongest, the decisive objection to him was his opposition to the prosecution of the war, and that objection is pretty sure to be remembered against him.

In reality, there is a greater danger to American freedom in the pressing in our State legislatures of Socialistic measures by representatives who do not call themselves Socialists at all, but who are strenuous in their acceptance of the old party names, than there is in the direct attacks of Socialist party representatives. If we could be spared a lot of these summary, confabulatory and over-regulative laws we could well afford to carry a half-dozen or so out-and-out Socialists on the rolls of Congress.—Boston Transcript.

Pre-war stuff.

It pays to advertise. On the strength of a recent article in this column in which oratory was the theme, we have been asked to make a speech.

The little green bird who flew into our window a week ago has perked up and is taking an interest in things. He came on a chill and sun-filled day, butted his head on the window of the fourth floor and was taken in. The discretion of the little green bird is something to afford material for an essay. The marvelous manner in which he passed up the third floor where the unregenerate printers abound, the second floor where dull statistics perch on every pen-rack, and the first floor where folks pay their subscriptions and advertise the front room for rent sets him apart as a wise and particular bird. He even dodged the fifth and sixth floor and the roof where and sixes floor and the hundreds of noices and nephews in song and dance, and knocked his head on the editorial window. No wonder he was taken in, a cage was made of a wastebasket while the collection for a new one was taken. Now the bird hangs in state, a bird in a newspaper office!

Sometimes we wonder what this one or that, of the old-time fire-eating and tobacco-chewing city editors, would say could he see our bird. The world has moved, the city room is safe for Bogale, and Bogale, sitting on his perch fluffs the yellow fuzz on his cheeks until it would appear he wears mutton-chop whiskers. He is very wise and adds dignity to the place.

What Memory Will Do.
(San Luis Obispo Telegram.)

As I stood on one of the streets in the town of Morro, which slopes gently down to the shores of Morro Bay, and saw across the bay the majestic outlines of Morro Rock rising 597 feet above the surface of the ocean, by which it is entirely surrounded, my memory took me back to a visit I once made to the Kern River Electric Power Plant near Bakersfield.

The new premier of France started off by firing 150 stenographic pliers. He may be a good premier but it is certain his ears are burning.

An article in the Atlantic Monthly on "The Moon in Literature," has inspired an editorial writer in Fresno to consider "The Moon in Politics." In truth the moon is a saucy intruder and so he holds place in our politics and our letters, by the same token it bubbles in our spirits. The moon is the maddest in March, 'tis maddest in March, 'tis maddest in June, and in December 'tis as cold as the knobs on a steel safe. We are for the moon in literature and politics and will vote for him for any office to which he may aspire.

After reading the reports from the various welters one may become convinced that the political pot will boil on the slightest provocation.

TIME FOR THE PEOPLE TO BEGIN TALKING.

NOTES and COMMENT

Perhaps legislators have reached the limit for the present as to election laws. The several changes that have been made by the implied idea that they would hunch along the millenium, notably the election of United States senators by direct vote, have not come up to expectations; so there is not a glowing chance for the bill introduced by Wood of Indiana for the election of presidents by "popular" vote, the candidate receiving the second highest vote to become vice-president. The idea that a method must be better because it is different is not as strong as it was.

They continue to do overt things in Oklahoma. Two women performed the Ku Klux act of haling a waitress out in the woods, and whipping her with switches. And it was characteristic that the prosecuting attorney of the county announced that there would be no prosecutions for the act. Events that have gone before, coupled with this, warrant a conclusion that the people of that State have a wild and woolly way.

The turmoil that has occurred and still exists in the Balkan countries does not deter royal weddings. Young King Alexander of Yugoslavia, who is largely Serbia, is to marry Princess Marie of Rumania. Jugoslavs are represented to be pleased, and to consider this a step in the direction of peace in the Balkans. If it will achieve that miracle it certainly will be a good thing.

The Key Route System, in its news sheet, presents a broadside consisting of some fifty clippings from this paper, detailing automobile accidents. These accidents occurred otherwise than in collisions with the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway for it is explained that during the year 1921 cars of that line traversed 16,887,649 miles, carrying 111,233,048 passengers, with only one fatal accident to a passenger. It is an interesting statement.

THE FIRST ROBIN.
Winter days are cold and long.
But the robin with his song
One bright morning, crisp and clear,
Comes to tell us Spring is near.

Kindly bird that braves the storm,
Quits the sunny South and warm
For the North still draped in snow,
You are like the friends I know.

When I suffer in despair
And my nights are filled with care,
They, too, leave their joys behind
To be comforting and kind.

When my heart with grief is numb,
They, too, brave the storm and come
To be near me and to share
All the burdens I must bear.

Though mid pleasures they might stay
In their sunny far-away,
Soon I find them calling here,
Messengers of faith and cheer.

Japan Times and Mr. McCormick

Kobe Chronicle Adopts Sarcastic Vein in Dealing With the Futile Tactics of the Organ of the Military Ring on the Vladivostok Exposures.

The following article is from the Japan Weekly Chronicle (Kobe) and shows an interesting phase of the discussions in Japan following the amazing exposures of the activities carried on in Siberia by the Japanese army of occupation contained in the series of despatches published in THE TRIBUNE from its special correspondent in Siberia, Frederick McCormick. The documents referred to are those secured by McCormick revealing the terrorist plots of Major-General Tachibana at Vladivostok and the War Ministry at Tokyo against Major F. M. Clarke and other Americans.

It is strange how often Japan is made to suffer by wholesale forgeries. There was, for example, the secret treaty with Russia in 1916, which was clearly in substitution of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance. It contained the signatures of the Japanese and Russian ministers and was never denied in Tokyo, but it was so clearly subversive of public faith that it must have been a forgery. Then there are the Chita disclosures of the correspondence between France and Japan before the Washington Conference, which have a curiously genuine ring about them, and are evidently credited by the bulk of newspapers in America. They are skillful forgeries, however, for they have been so denounced by the embassies of the respective powers in the United States. Neither power, of course, has even made a secret treaty or conducted a secret diplomatic correspondence in the course of its existence. The compact between Britain and France on one side and Japan on the other, by which Japan was allotted the German rights in Shantung, was never made in spite of the fact that performance of the compact was demanded by the Japanese and obtained in Paris. It also must have been a forgery, for the quid pro quo was the withdrawal of Japan's opposition to China entering the war, and as Japan was one of the allies it is clearly impossible that she can have thrown any obstacles to still another power entering the Entente. Now we have a series of revelations made by Mr. Frederick McCormick together with documents containing the gravest imputations against the Japanese Military Command in Siberia. The Japan Times and Mail, a journal which seems to be run to give Japanese students the benefits of a debased English, has worked itself up into a condition of hysterical indignation over these accusations. It does not deal with the curious parallel between the documents and some recent occurrences in Siberia, but it expounds the evils of its explanation in a strange English jargon on the head of Mr. McCormick, recalling the advice that if you have a bad case your best plan is to abuse the plaintiff's attorney. Incidentally the Chronicle is dragged into the fray. In the exquisite English which adorns its columns, the Japan Times says:

As proof of the limit of absurdity of the McCormick "exposure" may be noted that the Kobe Chronicle began to reprint his articles, but stopped without explanation. They were too rank even for the brass-tined stomach of the Chronicle, ordinarily able to digest anything anti-Japanese and pro-Chinese that may happen along.

The phraseology seems to be a combination of English as she is spoke in Japan with reminiscences of American back-woods Journalism. As the Japan Times has delicately referred to the matter, however, we may say that the articles were suspended pending fuller information and a possibility of getting into communication with Mr. McCormick. We have now obtained copies of the documents on which Mr. McCormick relies, have interviewed that gentleman on his passing through Kobe, and have received a fuller statement of the circumstances. They seem to us very grave accusations and to demand full inquiry by the Japanese civil authorities, who, we are quite ready to believe, are not cognizant of the facts upon which they are based. We shall return to the subject shortly. No doubt the Japan Times will feel considerable surprise that we should take so much trouble to investigate statements which, whether well or ill-founded, go to substantiate our view that the Japanese expedition to Siberia is doing serious harm to Japan's reputation and is placing Japan's foreign policy within the power of a military junta. To hold such views and yet to examine closely the value of any piece of evidence that seems to support the subject, is a thing that cannot be understood by the persons who conduct the Japan Times. It is journalistic rectitude carried to a ridiculous excess. Thus when the discussion regarding the fortification of the Bonins came up at Washington, the Japan Times declared that at present there were no fortifications on the islands. It is quite possible, of course, that the Tokyo journal did not know this to be untrue. Its ignorance of Japanese news has its advantages, though we would not say that it is not a method of which we approve, and, without using the delightful English of the Tokyo journal, it will perhaps be able to understand why we have thought it well to make further investigations, before dealing with the McCormick indictment of Japanese military methods in Siberia.

PROPOSED PARKING LAW DISCUSSED BY BUSINESS MEN

More than two score merchants and representatives of the city's leading business establishments, in session in the directors' room of the Chamber of Commerce late today, discussed in detail the proposed new parking ordinance, which will prohibit diagonal parking of automobiles in the downtown streets.

Since the ordinance was passed to print at a recent meeting of the City Council opposition has developed among merchants, and it was pointed out at today's meeting that parallel parking, as proposed in the new ordinance, will restrict the number of machines parking in downtown streets and also make it more difficult for women drivers to handle their cars in the buying district.

Under the present parking system, according to the merchants, with all cars drawn in on a diagonal each driver has the opportunity to back into the street without the maneuvering that would be necessary under the proposed system.

According to the new ordinance "vehicles must be placed in such a position that the side of the vehicle must be placed in such a position that the side of the vehicle on the drivers' side shall be parallel to and not more than two feet distant from the curb, and a distance of at least three feet shall be maintained between any two vehicles so standing."

It also enlarges the forty-minute parking section of the city.

Valentino Was to Be Farmer; Became Famous Star Instead

RUDOLPH VALENTINO, as "Julio," the dashing and dissipated Argentine youth, hero of "The Four Horsemen," whose love-making proclivities and sensational tango dancing, won him place as screen's most popular star.

"The Four Horsemen" Nearing Close of Engagement at the American; "Wild Honey" Starts Friday.

Agriculture and the tango are responsible for his success as one of the world's greatest film stars, says Rudolph Valentino, the brilliant leading character of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," now nearing the close of a remarkably successful engagement at the American Theater.

Young Valentino in tracing the chain of circumstances that brought him to the screen, relates how as a graduate of the Royal Military College of Agriculture in Genoa, Italy, he came to America to make his fortune in the vast American farming regions.

He happened to arrive in New York City just as the tango was in its popularity and his nimble feet caused him to tarry. He created a sensation and was soon retained to dance professionally in the leading

New York cafes. Later he toured the country as an exponent of the tango and other ball room steps and finally halted in Southern California's movie colony.

Here he enjoyed nominal success until Rex Ingram combing the country for his cast in "The Four Horsemen" decided that Valentino was the ideal for "Julio," the dashing and dissipated young South American. He does more than act his portion of the picture; he actually lives it and his work merits the fame and fortune that has since been his.

The engagement of "The Four Horsemen" will close tomorrow night. Commencing Friday Priscilla Dean will be presented in her latest success, "Wild Honey." On the same bill will be David Butler and Gladys Walton will be seen in "The Wise Kid."

REFERENDUM ON CITY ROW LIMITED

As a counter to the recent action of the city council in transferring Commissioner William J. Baccus to the finance department, thus displacing Commissioner Edwards and the Edwards-Boyle-Ormsby-Campbell majority in the board of education, it became known today that the latter faction is listening to suggestions for a referendum.

Both Secretary Norval Cook of the board of education and City Attorney Leon E. Gray admit they have heard of the matter, though Cook says it has come to his ears "from the outside."

"There are persons who say that the end is not yet," said Cook. "It is admitted that the action of the city council in interfering with the board of education's affairs is receiving considerable comment."

City Attorney Gray said he had heard of this referendum business, but doubted if it could apply to this case.

Since the transfer of Baccus was started, the majority board members have held many recent conferences, where they and their backers have been considering what to do. Edwards was not at the city council meeting today.

Park Board Asks Bonds For Redwoods Purchase

A formal notice that the board of park directors will ask a bond election for the purchase of the redwoods was a feature of today's meeting of the city council, which also accepted Commissioner Carter's recommendation that certain temporary jobs in the harbor department be dispensed with, saving $577.2 per annum.

The park directors announced that it is the intention to ask the city council to call the bond election for the purchase of various park sites, including the Havens redwoods, just east of the present Joaquin Miller park. A letter was introduced by the Pioneer Women of Oakland, approving the purchase of the redwoods, and pointing out that the new sky line boulevard extension will go right to the tract.

"The action of the park directors, it is admitted, is a direct result of a questionnaire where all the civic improvement and social clubs were asked their views on nearly thirty park sites. The replies seemed almost unanimous concerning the advisability of buying some parks, and badly scattered concerning others. The park directors are now recommending the purchase of those which were favored by the great majority. We believe we can now bring these matters to the people and receive a successful vote," says President Marston Campbell of the park board.

Incidentally, Mrs. Frank Havens, owner of the big redwood tract, reminded the city officials today that the 30-day option on the property has lapsed, and she wants to know what the city is going to do about it. The park board's request to the city council is the answer. It was referred to the city planning commission for advice.

Commissioner Albert E. Carter pointed out to the council that there are now about 27 extra positions recognized as parts of his department, and these can be eliminated for good, without discharging anyone. The positions have been held in the past, but no one has been reappointed to them recently.

"There has been a continuous stream of candidates asking for these jobs," says Carter, "though they are not needed. We can get along without them. This can save the city $577.2 in salaries and pay."

The ordinance demanding fireproof roofs in all future construction and repairs in the Market street district was given final passage by the council. This district embraces Market, West, Fifth and Twenty-sixth streets and is just outside the fire

NEW WITNESS IN GEM CASE FOUND

A new witness against Jack Harris and Gus Schachtel, in connection with the $100,000 diamond robbery at St. Paul, Minn., has been discovered by Sheriff Frank Barnett, but his name is being kept secret because of threats alleged to have been made to kill him if he turns informer. This announcement was made by the sheriff's office today as the newest development in the sensational arrest of the two men charged with the daring raid on the jewelry store of A. I. Shapiro & Brother.

This witness, Sheriff Barnett says, has declared he saw Harris and Schachtel in the vicinity of the Shapiro jewelry store the day before the robbery and has positively identified them, both by their photographs and by personal inspection. His testimony is expected to break down the alibi Harris and Schachtel hope to establish through the assistance of Senator Frank Carr, their attorney, who says the men were in his office the day before the crime was committed and that they paid him a fee on that date.

Schachtel and Harris were taken to Sacramento Tuesday afternoon to be present today at the extradition hearings before Governor Stephens. They went in the custody of Deputy Sheriffs Joe Soares and Jack Collier.

MERCY URGED ON EMPLOYERS, MEN BY O. TVEITMOE

The philosophical note was struck yesterday at an Francisco, in the report of Olat A. Tveitmoe, secretary-treasurer of the Building Trades Council.

Tveitmoe declares in his report that "strikes are the costliest weapon at the disposal of labor, as I know by experience." He added:

"Contractors and journeymen ought to try and practice mercy. It is what the world needs. Forgiveness is very much in demand on this earth of transgression. Profit is the god of the world today. Therefore, take profit out of war, and you have peace, militarily and industrially—peace."

Tveitmoe's report covers a wide range. Regarding other matters of moment, he says:

"I find an amazing increase in the traffic in poison and deadly concoctions and drugs. There is an increase in the rate of crime, insanity and blindness among the users of drugs. This evil must be stamped out."

Regarding the Japanese, Tveitmoe reported:

"We must guard our exclusion legislation. The Japanese are coming into California at an astounding rate. Nothing will do but exclusion. The Japanese talk nice, fine phrases; but the 'Samurai' mean war."

Several educational addresses were delivered before the convention yesterday. Mrs. C. H. Godfrey, of the department of labor, declared that San Francisco had 8000 illiterates and Los Angeles 16,000. Commenting on these remarks, Frank C. MacDonald, vice-president of the council, declared that poor wages are responsible for virtually all native illiteracy.

Professor Ira B. Cross of the University of California reviewed trade union growth in his address. He described the "American plan" campaign, as but a "passing phase."

What's Happening in the Motor World

Tuesday night next motorists may find it hard to get service on automobiles if they happen to have trouble, unless they ring up Aahmes Temple and find there the whole membership of the Alameda County Automobile Trade Association.

The men who repair cars are going to play that night at a smoker, which will have all the trimmings in the way of entertainment. There will be all sorts of talent, most of it professional.

Committees are working to complete their plans, and getting things in shape for the occasion.

Bill Mackay is chairman of the arrangements and he has had his hands full for a long time shaping up details. He has lined up his fellow members and nearly three hundred will attend unless Mack misses his guess.

The smoker is an annual party night for the members of the association. Then follows the theater party in a few weeks. Boxes for this theater party will be auctioned at the smoker. Bob Martland, secretary, does the auctioneering and he has in the past, induced many of the members to pay good prices for their prize seats.

The meeting will convene at seven o'clock next Tuesday night, March 28, at Aahmes Temple on Thirteenth street at Harrison. There, George Robe will serve a big banquet. The tables will be arranged in a huge horseshoe and the entertainment will be held on the stage and inside the horseshoe.

It is expected to be a successful party. Business cares will be forgotten for the night and the men will enjoy themselves.

The committee in charge of the affair is Bill Mackay, general chairman; Charles Avis, Robert Abernathy, Nelson Scotchler, Jack Glaze, Jack Bowers, Jim Houlihan, Bud Lane, Don Noher, Jack Dalton, Oon Ensminger, Harry Lee.

FORGETFUL BOOK BORROWER GETS JAIL SENTENCE

GENEVA, March 22.—Justice has at last overtaken the man who borrows books and "forgets" to return them. A book-borrower of Balikon, a suburb of Zurich, has been sentenced to two days' imprisonment and a fine of 40 francs plus the value of the book he failed to return.

The magistrate, in passing sentence, said, "A book is a family utensil like furniture, and is necessary for the welfare of the family. The defendant lodged an appeal."

BONUS WILL GO

SPECIAL RULE

House Committee Adopts the Plan to Pass Measure
Tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A resolution making tomorrow a special suspension day in the house so as to consider the soldiers' bonus bill under a suspension of rules was approved today by the rules committee without a formal record vote. Only a majority vote by the house would be necessary for the adoption of the resolution which provides for four hours debate on the bill.

By CARL D. GROAT,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Democratic Congressmen lined up run by means of which the soldiers would receive the bonus in the House. They, with perhaps some Republican anti-bonus support, will attack the rule being framed today by the House. The measure, under which the bonus measure will skim through the House with a big majority after four hours' debate.

Conservative estimates are that there will be a 200-vote majority of five votes against the bill.

The word is being passed around the House that President Harding will certainly will not support the present bill.

Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee is quoted as saying sub- stantially:

"The President told us that the present bill meets some of his objections."

As the situation now stands, the House members will be able to go forward for the fall campaigns and get the vote.

"We have passed the bonus for the soldiers; we are entitled to your vote."

The measure is not perfected, but it is only a question of time when it is finished in the upper body.

Ivan Treadwell Is

SAN JOSE, March 22. — Ivan I. Treadwell, one of the best known and wealthiest ranchers in the Santa Clara valley, was instantly killed to-day in the garage of his home on the corner of 10th and Broadway streets, when a shot from a gun accidentally exploded.

Treadwell was preparing to go on a hunting trip when the gun's trigger caught on a grease cup on his machine and was discharged. He was survived by a widow and three children. He was a son of James Treadwell, who made a fortune in Alaska during the gold rush.

Treadwell came to the Santa Clara valley 25 years ago.

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP WITH SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mento-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up, and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Suffering from skin trouble should get a little jar of Mento-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cream.—Advertisement.

DON'T SQUEEZE BLACKHEADS—DISSOLVE THEM

Squeezing and plucking out blackheads with the fingers causes the pores to enlarge and causes irritation—then, after they have become hard you cannot get all of them out. Blackheads are caused by accumulations of dust and dirt and sebum from the skin, and there is only one to dissolve them. Just get from any drug store about two ounces of calcium pyrophosphate, sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—over the blackheads briskly for a few seconds—wash off and you'll be surprised to see how fewer blackheads have disappeared, and the skin will be left soft and the pores in their natural condition—anyone troubled with them, uncleanly blackheads should try this simple method.—Advertisement.

NEWBERT TELLS DEVELOPMENT OF POWER SYSTEMS

Eastbay Manager of P. G. & E. Speaks to Key Educational Section.

Lee H. Newbert, Eastbay manager for the Pacific Gas & Electric company, today described his company's development up to the present system which will be operated on a 220,000-volt primary transmission basis, in an address before the semi-annual meeting of the Key System educational section at the executive building of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways, Twenty-second and Grove streets.

With the aid of moving pictures the speaker carried the Key System employees through the Pitt river development where the same water is used through five different power plants before it is released to the valley for irrigation and domestic consumption. Details were given regarding construction of power plants, their diversion ditches, etc., and steps traced in the bringing of the power from mountain stream down into homes and factories in the bay region.

Some of the important facts and statistics related by Newbert were: That the Folsom power house just above Sacramento was the first commercially operated hydro-electric power plant in the world.

That the state of California has the cheapest power in average cost per kilowatt hour in the world.

That there is more electric power used for agricultural purposes in the state than in the rest of the United States put together.

That the consumption of electric power per capita in this state is seven times as great as in any other state in the Union.

B. M. Jones, of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways auditing department, presided at the meeting and introduced Newbert as the speaker.

Diminuta, Cal.—"Two years ago the flu left my kidneys in a very bad shape. I went to my physician but he didn't do me any good. I got thin, my back hurt all the time, and I was not able to work. LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE

CHICAGO, March 22.—A real tragedy which took place behind the scenes and unknown to the audience brought to a close the first act of a performance of "The Dame," by the Russian Grand Opera company here last night.

Toward the end of the act a slight commotion behind the scene disturbed a duet by Miss Marie Maschir, soprano, and Vladimir Daniloff, tenor, and when Miss Maschir stepped into the wings she stumbled over the body of Slava Stankovetz, a chorus man. Stankovetz had attempted to end his life by stabbing himself above the heart. Members of the company said he had been despondent.

The performance was continued after Stankovetz had been moved to a hospital, where it was said that he had a chance to recover.

COOPERATION IS URGED UPON U. S. BY WILL C. WOOD

State School Superintendent Honor Guest of Alameda Rotary Club.

ALAMEDA, March 22.—Will C. Wood, state superintendent of schools, was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Rotary Club yesterday. He spoke to the gathering on "Building a Community."

"America must learn the value of co-operation and the value of community life," stated Wood. "In this country we have had too much of a spirit of getting by. The American trader abroad has been content with getting by. The same has been shown in our home business methods. And the same is only too often seen in our school life in which the students are satisfied to get by. We must get away from that spirit."

"We can have good government only by emphasizing the positive factors. We have experienced a period of misgovernment which has never witnessed before. We are not going to realize that we must depend upon the awakening of civic consciousness through the training of our boys and girls to get it away."

"Another need of America is understanding. There has been too much of misunderstanding between the farmer and the city dweller, between capital and labor, and between the east and the west."

"In the past America has put her trust into the 'three R's.' The draft figures show the insufficiency of our educational methods rather than their inefficiency. In 1911 we spent an average of $4.79 for educational purposes. In 1921 we spent $10, but the $10 of 1921 was equal in purchasing power to the $4.76 of 1911. Therefore, since 1911 we have actually been getting no more money into our schools."

"It is necessary that we prevent illiteracy in this country by devoting more money and attention to our educational system, to compulsory education and to the development of night schools."

"Our young people should be brought into contact with the world more than at the present time. At one time America could live much to herself but that time has passed. America is shot through the world problems and unless we have an understanding of them we are making for further misunderstanding."

Wood also spoke strongly for increased vocational training in our schools on the ground that the schools should prepare the student to make a living.

MOTHER GOOSE PARTY PLANNED

That mother Goose, that beloved character of our imagination, her home is so commonly supposed, but a real life lady has developed, and she is the Tippy Toe Rubble Book Party to be given at the H. C. Saurer company's store next Saturday evening.

Mother Goose was really Miss Elizabeth Foster, who married a man by the name of Vergosse, and as they had twelve little children she was very busy. She was very busy to buy pretty toys for the children. Instead, she would gather the children about her and sing the songs that her mother, who came from England many years before, had sung to her. "Mother Goose," as they had playfully christened her, would do more to heal a broken heart or dry a tear than any other melodies known.

Her fame as an entertainer grew rapidly and the Mother Goose Melodist were contributed by her first publicity agent, her son-in-law, the late Thomas Fleet, at his printing house, Pudding Lane, in 1716, priced two coppers.

ALL SONGS COLLECTED.
And now in the twentieth century Ralph Mayhew and Burgess Johnson assembled all these delightful old rhymes and compiled them into a set of attractive children's works, known as Bubble Book.

On next Saturday morning at 10:30, and in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, through the courtesy of Capt. Wells, the children of the community may see the old familiar characters from Mother Goose, Tom the Piper's Son and others.

MRS. O'CONNOR IN CHARGE.
The party is under the personal direction of Mrs. O. M. O'Connor, who brings with her appropriate costumes and scenery with which to present the play. Mrs. O'Connor, who is a Nassau resident, has conducted similar events in large cities throughout the country. Six songs and tableaux comprise the entertainment.

The little girls from Miss Belle Butler's dancing classes have been selected for the characters.

BERKELEY CHECK OPERATOR WANTED IN MINNEAPOLIS

Youth Claiming to Be Son of Rich Ecuador Planter Lands in Jail.

MINNEAPOLIS, March 21.—Vincente Salvatierra, claiming to be a graduate of the University of Ecuador, was arrested here today, charged with drawing checks amounting to $150 on the First National Bank of Berkeley, Calif., where he is said to have no funds. Salvatierra told the police his father is a wealthy plantation owner of Ecuador, who had forwarded a monthly allowance to the Berkeley bank while he was attending the University of California.

BERKELEY, March 22.—Vincente Salvatierra, who was arrested in Minneapolis for passing bad checks, after posing as a graduate of the University of Ecuador and the son of a wealthy planter in that country, succeeded in cashing several hundred dollars in bad checks about the bay last year, according to the Berkeley police.

According to Inspector A. S. J. Woods, who investigated Salvatierra's activities in Berkeley, the latter is an impostor and has claimed on various occasions to be both a Filipino and a South American. He is declared to have been refused admittance to the Leyte Association of Filipino Students after he had borrowed money and passed worthless checks upon the members. Father Thomas L. O'Neill, chaplain at Newman Hall, is also declared to have been victimized by the impostor.

The police declare that Salvatierra's story of an allowance from Ecuador is a myth.

MATE WAS 'CAVE MAN,' WIFE SAYS

"Too much cave man stuff," is the plaint of Mrs. Lucille Crooks Thompson, of 217 Ridgeway avenue, in a divorce suit begun today against Dr. Thomas F. A. Thompson, San Francisco chiropractor.

Thompson, her black and blue, cursed her to the music of a jazz band, leaped out at her like a jack-in-the-box from behind a door, chased her to a neighbor's house and bit her nose, are some of the alleged reasons for her divorce.

Mrs. Thompson says it all began when Dr. Thompson beat and slapped her and threatened to kill her because he thought she was cheating on a preference for other men. She left him and went to live with her sister, but he followed her to a dance one night, and by threatening a scene compelled her to dance with him, she said. During the dance, because of a preference for other men, he bit her nose and cursed her under cover of the noise of saxophones and snare drums.

Falling by these means to get her to come back to him, Mrs. Thompson asserts, he phoned her, ostensibly from his office in San Francisco, that her canary was starving, but when she reached their former home at 217 Ridgeway avenue, Oakland, he popped out from behind the door and attempted to seize her. She fled up the street to a neighbor with her husband in close pursuit, she declares, and he caught her as she was about to enter the neighbor's door and bit her angrily on the nose. The neighbor separated them, she says, and made her husband let her alone for the time being.

Mrs. Thompson declares in her complaint that she can stand no more of this sort of life, and that she is not granted a divorce the result will be a physical collapse and permanent injury to her health. She asks $50 a month temporary alimony pending the trial of the suit, and a division of community property including the home place on Ridgeway avenue.

Professor Hunted 'Ghosts,' But Now It Is Vice Versa

NEW YORK, March 22.—Dr. Walter Franklin Prince recently went to investigate the ghosts.

Today it was revealed that the ghosts are investigating Dr. Prince. The investigator described to the United Press the antics of his private spook, which for months has caused alarm and amazement in his New Jersey home.

Dr. Prince's ghost, from his statements recently, has been producing a sensation akin to seasickness in the occupier; it raps, imitates a pelegged man walking on the floor above the haunted bedroom and gives other unearthly demonstrations of its presence.

Two Things About the Vacuum Cleaner

FIRST, it will deliver all the convenience and comfort claimed for it—provided you buy a standard make such as the Premier.

Second, the scope and utility of your cleaner, as well as other appliances, are dependent upon the quality and completeness of the original electrical installation. And that in turn depends upon the integrity and competence of the electrical contractor who does the work.

The Premier Vacuum Cleaner bears the "check" mark of the Pacific States Electric Company, which means that it has been tested, passed and certified as standard, and that the dealer or contractor from whom you buy it is competent and responsible.

This "check" mark, which appears on a complete line of electrical materials and appliances, selected from the markets of the world, is, therefore, a double safeguard for the electrical consumer. It identifies standard, reliable materials and appliances, which are handled by qualified electrical contractors and dealers.

You will enjoy our new booklet "The Electrical 'How for Householders' which lists some of these standard materials and appliances and describes their use in the progress of a typical day in a electrified home. It may be obtained free from any contractor or dealer displaying this seal.

Narcotic Victim to Be Operated Upon

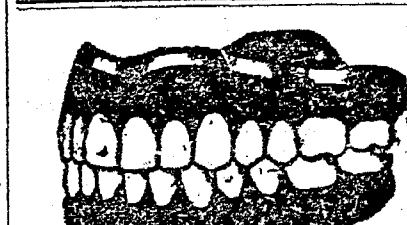

Fred Thomas, the first man to be arrested in Oakland under the new state narcotic law that makes it felony to use or carry "dope," departed for San Quentin today. Although Thomas faces a prison term of five years, he also faces the possibility that an operation to be performed on his brain by prison surgeons, may free him of the "dope" habit.

An examination of Thomas made since his arrest has disclosed a deep dent in his skull, and it is believed that the resulting pressure upon his brain may be responsible for his moral delinquency.

In a letter to the state board of prison directors, signed by Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church and Deputy District Attorney Earl Warren, the recommendation is made that Thomas should not only be given the specific cure for the "dope" habit, but that a cranial operation should be performed.

Thomas, after pleading guilty several weeks ago, asked for probation, but Probation Officer Leonard D. Compton expressed the belief that Thomas was too firmly addicted to the "dope" habit to be allowed at large.

Sheriff Sues to Get Auto Deputy Lost
Sheriff Frank Barnett today appealed to the civil courts to recover an automobile from a man who, he says, took it away from one of his deputy sheriffs.

According to the sheriff, one of his deputies seized an automobile belonging to Charles L. Baender, under a writ of execution obtained in Superior Judge Harris' court by Baender's wife, Lillian, who was suing him for divorce. Baender, who was parting with the machine with great reluctance, suddenly turned to the deputy and offered to back it out of the garage for him. The deputy, pleased with this evidence of good will, assented, and stood watching Baender perform the difficult feat. When Baender reached the street there was a shifting of gears, a twirl of the wheel and Baender and the automobile were breaking the speed limit down the street.

The sheriff wants the courts to make Baender give back the automobile, which he has been unable to locate since, or to pay $500 in its place.

SACRAMENTO, March 22.—Improvement in employment conditions in Northern California is indicated in an increased demand for men placed with the employment agencies of Sacramento. Employers in many sections are beginning to send in orders for more workers.

SUIT OF SLAIN BOY FOUND ON MAN BY FATHER

PASADENA, March 22.—Sevano Telles stopped a stranger on the street and asked him the time.

The stranger drew from his pocket a gold watch which, Telles later declared, had been the property of his son, Martin Telles, 17, whose body, stripped and with the head crushed, had been found in a reservoir.

Telles examined the stranger more thoroughly. The clothes he wore, according to Telles, had been worn by his son when he left home March 4.

The stranger was arrested. He gave the name of Esderero Moreno, and said the watch and clothes had been given to him by another man.

Moreno is held on suspicion of murder.

News of the Churches

Plymouth Teachers Form Organization

The Junior department teachers of the Plymouth Congregational church recently formed an organization to discuss the problems of their department. Russell Reukema, who is the superintendent of the Junior department, is the chairman, and at a recent meeting held Miss Ruth Berry was elected vice-chairman.

Under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. R. Reukema there will be a summer Bible school at Plymouth Center for the boys and girls of the Sunday school and community in connection with the Center work. The course covers six weeks and will probably begin directly after the closing of the public school. A training class for those who will assist in instructing the school is to be held on Monday evening for five weeks following Easter.

Story Writing Class Will Open Tonight

Miss Rebecca N. Porter, instructor for the University of California Extension Division in Oakland, is to meet a class in short story writing at 7:30 this evening at Ebell hall. This will be the last opportunity to enroll in the class.

Miss Porter is the author of several published novels and short stories.

Dr. Brooks to Speak On Missionary Work

Dr. Charles Alvin Brooks, secretary of the Department of City and Foreign Speaking Missions, of the American Baptist Home Mission Society, will speak on "World Reach of Home Missions," at the First Baptist church, Berkeley, this evening.

Dr. Brooks is generally recognized as an authority in religion along the divisions of city missions, foreign speaking missions, negro work, and Christian community centers. Since his return from his year abroad as European missionary of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, he has developed mission service by intensive study in church and community organization and united programs in city and state missions of the Northern Baptist Convention.

One direct result of his intensive work among foreign speaking groups has been the progress toward self-support of the Italian churches in the particular quarter where Baptist Mission Stations have been established. He says that it is his intention this year to specialize on work among two or three other foreign speaking groups, particularly Russians, Poles and Rumanians.

To Investors—Large and Small

By Oakland Real Estate Board

There is a field of investment open to many persons of very limited working capital which opens possibilities of modest and regular income and which is often overlooked or purposely avoided because of lack of information as to how it should be approached.

This is the investment in small stores and shops, rooming houses and apartments.

The investor in the larger stores, hotels and apartments is usually a person of considerable capital and wide experience and he has no hesitancy in investigating the field of his investment choice on his own account and through the medium of some reputable and responsible broker. But the person of limited means is usually one of limited business experience and fears to risk his little all on something he knows nothing of or to take the advice of one in whom he may have no confidence and he usually passes up genuine opportunities.

There are in this community hundreds of small businesses yielding reasonable profits when intelligently handled which are purchasable at reasonable prices and on living-and-let-live terms. Many a man barred from his accustomed livelihood for one reason or another finds himself facing the problem of supporting himself and family and with but a handful of dollars as a capital. Many a woman finds self-supporting a stunning problem because of her lack of equipment and training to meet it. To such as these such investments prove strong appeals but they usually fear to make the undertaking.

While such investment by such people must be carefully, honestly and intelligently made to prove successful, and they do prove successful and sufficiently profitable in thousands of cases.

Intelligent, reliable, experienced brokers specializing in this class of business, are to be found in Oakland, through whom investments of this character may be safely made. While official records show that inexperienced people have been misled, to their loss by unscrupulous persons in such investments, there are on the lists of the State Real Estate Department and of the Oakland Real Estate Board the names of many brokers who can be thoroughly relied on for proper guidance in such matters.

In a growing community such as this with community centers springing up in scores of localities, neighborhood groups of little stores, shops and investments of this kind sufficient to make the average family self-supporting are readily to be found and because of the rapid growth of the community and rapidly growing population throughout the entire area, practically all of such businesses, stores, apartments, rooming-houses are daily becoming more desirable and more profitable and are reasonably sure of permanent returns if handled with intelligence and industry.

100,000,000 Spent Annually on Education, Stephens
Tells C. of C.

N LEANDRO, March 22.—Calla, as a State, spends proportionately more money for education than State in America, according to Senator William D. Stephens, in an address last night before the San Lorenzo Chamber of Commerce. He more than half of the entire amount obtained by taxation is spent for this purpose. The total amount of State expenditures for this two-year period is $38,000,000, of which Stephens said, "Of that more than forty-five million is spent on the education of our children. To put it in another way our State expenditures per annum are about forty-four millions, of which twenty-three millions are each year's educational purchases. Would you provide less education for your children or your neighbor's children? If you would not, can materially reduce the tax on the twenty-three millions are in California by closing the schools. Do you want your children to have less education than their parents? Of course, you don't. Do you want the farmers paid an income tax salary of course not, else you would not vote as you did at the last election, a larger pay for them."

FUTURE GROWTH.
 The population of California increases each annual turn of the calendar. For growth, however, is the cause through immigration through birth, and the future growth of California is largely dependent upon the number of people who attract as visitors and induce to permanent residents. "If we believe California, if we unflinchingly and rascally criticize and by furnish headlines and newspaper articles for the back-biters, they will use them in the process of keeping their people away from California. You are well aware of the desire of half the population (at least) beyond the Rockies to leave California. Well, we get them in due time, if we don't tear them down. The world is a knacker and he hurts it. It is a booster and helps."

Another State in the Union has wonderful highways as California. If you doubt it, ask the automobile traveler who has driven over them. I have asked and there is not one answer California has the Holding that "crime is a reflection of character" rather than of environment, the committee renews recommendations that as a preventive clubs for boys and girls, supervised by leaders "who are most capable of understanding youth," be distributed in regions where they are needed.

The committee also finds that offenders who have been imprisoned four or more times compose one-third of the total prison population. It recommends an act whereby one who has been four or more times convicted and sentenced, for any misdemeanor even, may be committed for from one to three years," and the commitment of mental defectiveness among such offenders to appropriate institutions.

BUTLER FIGHTS DEPORTATION IN MCKAY 'ROMANCE'

NEW YORK, March 22.—Decision on the deportation of August Probst, former butler of the Rolling Rock Club at Ligonier, Pa., who claims he is being "railroaded" out of the country because of a romance with a Pittsburgh society girl, is expected within a few days.

Federal Judge Knox today considered the case.

Virginia McKay, daughter of a wealthy Pittsburgher, is the young woman with whom Probst, according to his lawyer's statement in court, "exchanged a troth."

Immigration authorities said Probst was insane and the romance an "hallucination."

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 22.—J. Albert McKay, father of Virginia C. McKay, mentioned in connection with an alleged romance with the Rolling Rock Club girl, today exclusive Rolling Rock club, today dictated this statement to the International News Service:

Johnbaugh and Mrs. Cushman are arrested on the complaint of Lawrence Tripp, 1007 Rhode Island street, San Francisco, who told the police that she had received a letter from the San Francisco woman which she stated that she was being obtained by the couple.

The girl had been reported missing from her home and her parents did not know of her whereabouts until she was Tripp received the letter.

The two were arrested by the local squad at the home of Mrs. Cushman, 1845 San Pablo avenue.

SCARCE SPECIMENS INHABIT TEXAS BIRD SANCTUARY

BROWNVILLE, Tex., March 10.—Texas bird sanctuaries, set up by the state legislature in Cameron and Kleberg counties, bid fair to become world renowned among naturalists inasmuch as one species that exists in no other part of the United States and several others that are very scarce, have been found there.

The "bird cities" are located on Green Island, on North and South islands and on the Three Islands—all small bodies of land in the Gulf of Mexico.

Among the birds that seek refuge on these islands are blue herons, mallards, red heads and canvas backs.

Game birds do not found elsewhere in the United States live in this section. The islands are distant from human inhabitation and are rarely visited by hunters.

There are no predatory animals on the islands to threaten the eggs and young of the birds.

The islands are leased to the International Association of Audubon societies for the purpose of protecting and conserving the birds.

"The would have the San Leandro bridge widened if it were the act he would accomplish as successor," was the statement made by Charles W. Hyer of Hayward.

Addresses were delivered by Frank Carr, A. E. Carter, city commissioner of Oakland, and Fred Turner, superintendent of Oakland Police. Possibilities of the establishment of a Decoto district school in Decoto, and extensive repairs needed the establishment of a proposed bathing resort at the city which were presented and heartily approved.

A Chance for the Visiting Angel

When William Travers Jerome was district attorney of New York he started a crusade of prosecutions against fortune-tellers, soothsayers and fake mediums, who at that time infested parts of Manhattan Island in numbers. A county detective named Al Thomas, a husky person with a wit of his own, was detailed to the job of securing evidence against these offenders and then arresting them.

In pursuance of his object Thomas called upon a so-called crystal-gazer, pretending that he wanted a reading. The faker ushered the customer into a dimly-lit room hung with black hangings and adorned with mysterious objects presumably pertaining to black art. There he sat Thomas down at a table and taking a seat on the opposite side he took Thomas' brawny left hand, palm upward, in one of his own hands, and in the other he balanced a large glass ball.

For a period of impressive silence he alternately shifted his gaze from the stranger's palm to the ball and back again from the ball to the palm. Then seemingly he began to drift into a trance. His eyes dropped, his head nodded, then at length his lips moved, framing words.

"A shape is hovering over me," he stated in rapt tones. "It draws nearer and yet nearer—it is an angel!"

"Fine and dandy," broke in the impious tones of Detective Thomas; "if said angel is a pal of yours you'd better fetch him along with you to put up the bail money. 'Cause you're pinched!"

MAN CHASING HIS HAT
SUB-TITLE

Blow, blow, ye gentle breezes,
Out among the flowers and trees;
Sing, sing, ye heavenly muses,
While I mend old boots and shoes.

SCENE—Man walk down street. New spring Kelly—very snappy. Soft pearl gray. Wind sneaks around corner and looks at hat a moment. Bright idea.

Grabs hat and rolls it briskly down the street.

Man make quick, ineffectual, despairing stab for hat. Ha! Ha! Hat prances down curb and teeters on edge.

Nice, cozy mud puddle just below. Man catches up with hat and stoops for it. Hat dances out into middle of street.

Sub-Title—Meet me on the bridge at midnight and do not fail to bring the papers.

SCENE—Man rushes out after hat. Auto barely misses him. Barely misses hat. Man chases hat through maze of autos and trucks. Taxi chauffeurs speak to him with winged words. Same words used in Good Book, but arranged differently.

Meanwhile half of the town has suspended work and gathered along curbing. Man has now enlisted aid of two small boys to help hunt hat. Also willing young man. Also policeman.

Hat (soft, pearly gray) rises in air and comes down gracefully in enormous mud puddle. Ha! Ha! Ain't we got fun! Have we not amusement!

Policeman trying to fish out hat steps on it. Ha, ha! Ha, ha! Fishes it out and holds it up to man who arrives panting.

Populace gathered on curbing hold their sides with laughter. Ho! Ho! Hat! Hat! Tee! Tee!

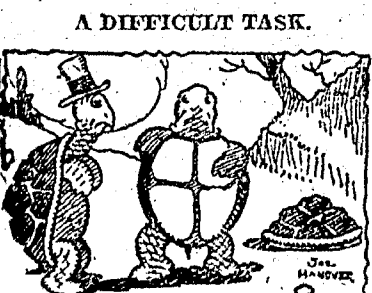

Man walks off down street holding dripping hat gingerly by brim; $6.75, including war tax.

Sub-Title—They dew say down by th' sawmill he ain't done right by our Nell.

AN offering of $600,000 6 per cent bonds on the Bacon block on Washington street from Eleventh to Twelfth, put on the market this morning were practically all sold out before noon, according to Blyth, Witter & Co. The demand on both sides of the bay was unusually keen, said members of the firm. The promise of the property providing the security for the bonds makes the issue one of peculiar interest to East-bay investors. The Bacon block occupies almost the western two-thirds of the block bounded by Broadway, Washington, Eleventh and Twelfth streets in the heart of the downtown section. The ground is 200 by 200 feet, covered by a three-story building, having 22 stores and 212 offices. The gross income for rentals in 1921 was $425,463, and the maintenance and operating expense $67,798, leaving a balance of $57,665 to meet a fixed charge for funding and interest on the bonds of $36,000. The income from the property will increase year by year while the bond charges will decrease, thus insuring a peculiarly ample security for the obligation.

SEATTLE LIGHT BONDS. OFFERED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE. The city of Seattle is offering an issue of $1,000,000 City of Seattle municipal bonds, 6 per cent, serial gold bonds, due serially from 1923 to 1942. The bonds constitute an obligation of the city and are payable from the gross revenue of the municipal light and power system before payment for operating expenses and depreciation. Principal and interest will be met through the maintenance by the city of the system sufficiently high to provide for these requirements, as well as rating costs and depreciation.

Heavy Spring Traffic, Says
Agent Lickitt.

The express business is a good barometer of trade, according to M. G. Lickitt, agent in charge of the Oakland office of the American Railway Express Company, who declared today that the business is getting ready for a return of the small package business, and the first two months of the year showed a noticeable increase in this traffic.

As the first step in the preparations to handle the increased business, the express company is experimenting with steel collapsible packing cases, which are expected to give even greater protection to the goods, while at the same time saving space in the trucks.

The company has a fleet of 125,000 employees and offices in 28,000 cities and towns. It operates over practically all the principal railroads in the United States, with a total mileage of 275,000 miles.

THE annex to the Oakland Bank of Savings building at Twelfth and Broadway will be seventeen stories high instead of sixteen as formerly announced, according to a statement by Cashier Arthur Moore at the quarterly meeting and dinner of the bank force at the Hotel Claremont last night. Moore stated that the work of tearing down the present 50-foot structure on the site will be under way before the end of the month. Work on the new skyscraper will start as soon as the ground is cleared and will be rushed to completion. It is expected that it will be ready for occupancy by September or earlier.

There were 150 employees of the bank at the dinner and meeting. An address on hydro-electric power was made by Robert Silbey, president of the McGraw Hill company.

WHEAT SURPLUS OF NORTHWEST
IS CLEARED UPBusiness Outlook on Puget Sound Show Improvements
as Spring Arrives.

BY CONSOLIDATED PRESS.
LEASER WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
SEATTLE, March 22.—Preparations are being made by retail merchants of the Pacific Northwest for an active spring season. Several large stores held spring opening this week and were greeted with a gratifying volume of trade. Business is well ahead of last year in unit volume and in many lines in dollar value also. Prices have reached more stable basis, and merchants are paying more attention to display advertising and selling methods.

The holdover of the wheat crop of the Pacific Northwest is decreasing rapidly. The amount now held is only 25 per cent of the amount stored at this time last year and the wheat still on the farms represents less than 10 per cent of the crop.

There is keen competition for cargoes in the intercoastal shipping business, but heavy movement of express subject to considerable fluctuations in consequence. There is considerable space offering for the Orient with rates steady. The continent and ample vessels for the Orient with rates steady.

The radio phone craze continues here unabated. Orders received at a local plant manufacturing radio instruments average $14,000 a day and are increasing at the rate of $500 daily. Spare parts including ear phones and vacuum tubes cannot be obtained locally.

The steamer Arizona, which left this port on February 22 for London, England, put into Cristobal after breaking one of her starboard propellers and receiving other damage while en route. The cablegram received here today. Repairs will be made before she can proceed on her journey.

A through passenger fare of $20.50 from the Orient to Europe will be put into effect on April 1 in connection with the steamer of the China Mail Steamship Company.

The fare will provide passengers with first-class accommodation across the Pacific, rail thence across the continent to Europe and will be applicable only on traffic from Hong Kong, Shanghai and Singapore.

Port to Southampton, Liverpool, etc. The fare will be applicable only on traffic from Hong Kong, Shanghai and Singapore. The fare will be applicable only on traffic from Hong Kong, Shanghai and Singapore.

The China Mail wishes to encourage passengers in the Orient destined to Europe and particularly to attract them to the port of San Francisco and for new fare into effect at the earliest practicable date, which is April 1.

It has been reported here that the Hudson Bay Company of British Columbia will establish a new station in the Arctic region this summer. The location selected is on Wrangell Island, which was seized by the company in 1910.

The company intends to send a vessel north with building material and merchandise to supply the new trading post.

The new steamer Jacob Luckenbach, on her maiden voyage from the Atlantic coast, docked at the Howard terminal today for the first time. She will then proceed to Puget Sound to finish, after which she will begin her regular service.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT

The lumber arrivals here today were the largest in many weeks, as the bar fallowing has calmed down, permitting all vessels to cross. The following crafts brought lumber here: Steamer Arctic, 300,000 feet; Carmel, 300,000; Svan, 300,000; Santa Monica, 300,000; Caspar, 300,000; and Mayfair, 300,000. A total of over 7,000,000 feet to be delivered here. Many other vessels with lumber are en route and will make their appearance here during the week. The weather along the coast is moderate, but the sky is cloudy.

Captain Larsen of the steam schooner P. S. Loop, one of the vessels arriving with lumber from Puget Sound, reports that on March 18 at 3:30 p. m. when they were 20 miles south by southwest of the Umatilla lightship, they passed through a large quantity of wreckage. There has been no word received here of any craft missing, nor is there any overdue at this port.

Among the charters reported today are the steamer P. S. Loop, 1,500 tons register, which will take a cargo of lumber from Grays Harbor to Japan, en route to Manila.

The Japanese steamer Shinko Maru, 3,832 tons register, has been chartered by Wilcox Hayes & Company to carry two cargoes of lumber from the Columbia River to Japan, en route to Manila.

The steamer P. S. Loop, 1,500 tons register, is booked to load a cargo of wheat on the Columbia River for the United Kingdom by Kerr, Gifford & Company. The lumber between northern ports and Japan have dropped to $10 per thousand feet, which makes it impossible for an American vessel to handle it at such a low price.

The steamer Arizona, which left this port on February 22 for London, England, put into Cristobal after breaking one of her starboard propellers and receiving other damage while en route. The cablegram received here today. Repairs will be made before she can proceed on her journey.

TRIBUNE, FIRST TO PROMOTE WIRELESS, NOW LEADS FIELD

NEWSPAPER GETS HIGH PRAISE FOR AIDING AMATEURS

News Is Received Broadcast
From Alaska to the Lower California Coast.

The TRIBUNE, having pioneered the idea in the West of printing radio news at length, and having been the first in the local field to establish a radio broadcasting station, and more recently the first newspaper in the United States to inaugurate a radio club of its own, is naturally the first newspaper in the mind of the amateur radio enthusiast. A great many communications in the daily printing of the TRIBUNE for its efforts in promoting the advance radio. These communications, while appreciated, have never been printed. But occasionally a letter reaches the Radio Department of the TRIBUNE which gives a feeling that efforts have not been wasted. Here is the most recent communication of that sort:

Radio Editor TRIBUNE—About a year ago I became interested in radio. I wanted to read all I could find about it. At that time there were not many books to be had and I naturally scanned the newspapers for every article on the subject. The daily newspapers did not furnish me with much data, especially that of a technical nature. Then, one day I saw an article in The TRIBUNE, and from then on I began to read it daily.

FIRST IN FIELD.
As I remember it now, The TRIBUNE was the first in the local field to get behind the radio idea. Your broadcasting station gave everybody a "kick." Although there were other broadcasting stations, none of them gave so much news as the TRIBUNE. The TRIBUNE station from the very first gave all the big news events of the day, and until now it ranks first in the broadcasting of general news. Its broadcasting hour came at a time just before the family is ready to go to the show, and just following the supper hour. It therefore, in my mind, serves more people—radio than any other broadcasting station in the state can ever hope to serve. So let's see you keep up the good work of broadcasting a complete news summary of the day.

I was moved to write this letter because of the added interest in radio that other newspapers seem to be taking. The TRIBUNE led the way and others have followed.

I think I speak for all the radio bugs in the bay district when I say The TRIBUNE will always be first with us, for it was the first newspaper to help us. It came to our aid when we were struggling with problems that we could not master alone. The pleasing thing is, it has been first in putting the club idea, and I am sure that idea will be successful, if not already.

My receiving set is a honeycomb set that I built myself. It gives excellent service and I hear your news bulletins distinctly. Thanking you for the questions you answered for me last week, and wishing success to The TRIBUNE Radio Club, of which I am now a member, I am

GUTHRIE DAVIS,
Newark Farm.

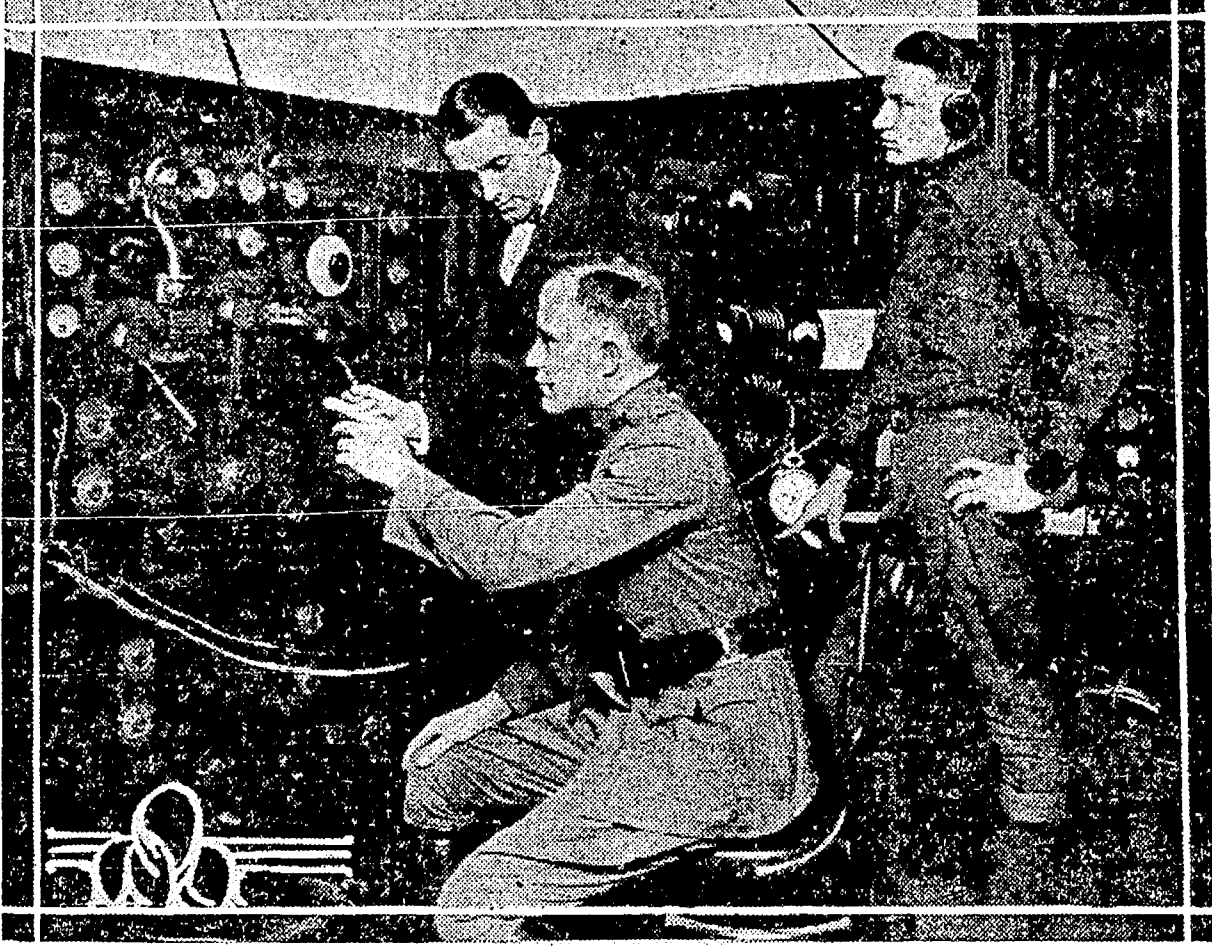

RECORDS SET
The TRIBUNE established its radio transmitting station on the Hotel Oakland almost a year ago, and since that time the station, while operating with but five-watt tubes, accomplished several long distance records for low-powered apparatus. These records include Scows Bay, Alaska; the southern coast of Lower California; Moose Jaw, Canada, and 2100 miles at this same apparatus could do under heavy power, either operating with 50 or 250-watt tubes, is a matter for speculation. In fact there have been many suggestions from amateurs that The TRIBUNE station put the power behind its apparatus and try for the world's radio record.

This may be done.

The station was installed by President D. Allen, head of the Western Radio Institute at the Hotel Oakland. It was through Allen's knowledge of radio and his ability to get all out of the apparatus that could be had that accomplished the long distance records. Allen continues to operate the station, and is the director of

Biggest Audience He's Had

Speaking through the air to an audience estimated at 300,000 persons, Richard Barthelmess, motion picture star, the other night tested out the radiophone from the huge United States army broadcasting station on Bedloe's Island, in the shadow of the Statue of Liberty. In the picture LIEUTENANT A. R. CLUNE is shown explaining the apparatus to BARTHELMESS, while on the right stands SERGEANT LESLIE TUNNING of the Signal Corps, U. S. A., a former Oakland boy.

Members' Names In Radio Clubs Asked by Tribune

THE TRIBUNE desires the names and addresses of the members of all the radio clubs about the bay. Secretaries of these clubs are invited to send a copy of the membership lists to The TRIBUNE Radio Department. If copies are not available, The TRIBUNE will make a copy from the original list. When sending in original lists to be copied, address them to the Radio Editor of The TRIBUNE, and their prompt return will be guaranteed. Such lists should be sent by registered mail. As soon as these lists are secured, the various club memberships will be printed from time to time.

radio for The TRIBUNE. He is also conducting a school of radio students who wish to become operators on sea craft, or stationary operators. He will soon begin a class of amateurs. The course will prepare the students to pass the federal test which permits them to operate a transmitting station. The code is also included in this course of instruction. The code is essential when listening in on wireless telegraph, which can be heard in the air day and night.

WIRELESS NEWS.

The TRIBUNE's next step, after the establishment of the broadcasting station, was to go in for wireless news in general. It is now running daily a series of radio articles, which are meant to instruct the amateur in the first principles of radio and if each article is thoroughly understood the amateur will have no difficulty in understanding the fundamentals of radio when he has finished the course. When possible the articles will be illustrated with diagrams, so that the lessons may be made easier to the beginner.

Every Sunday, and occasionally during the week, The TRIBUNE runs a questions and answers department. There is no special day during the week when it appears, so it is essential to watch the radio columns. The bulk of the answers to the questions appear in the Sunday TRIBUNE, however.

The formation of The TRIBUNE Radio Club is considered by the amateurs as one of the most popular undertakings of The TRIBUNE. The response has been spontaneous.

The first step taken by the club was to make an agreement with five Oakland dealers in radio for a ten per cent discount to all members of the club who purchase radio supplies between now and June 15.

RULES OF CLUB.

The only rules of the club are that all members abide by the federal regulations governing radio, and that every member who owns a transmitting set refrain from the use of language that would not be proper for the home or public gathering. Members must present their certificates of membership in The TRIBUNE Radio Club when purchasing supplies at 10 per cent discount.

The TRIBUNE has provided through its club a receiving set for the home, or for the boy who can not afford to purchase material for an expensive set. The set is a crystal set, with Remier knobs and nickel plated taps, with a single receiver and fixed condenser, with coil mounted in back of a genuine bakelite cabinet. It is declared to be the highest grade set of its kind for the price. It retails at $11, but members of The TRIBUNE Radio Club may obtain it for $7. Those who care to earn it may do so by contributing some of their spare time to the circulation department of The TRIBUNE. The set has a telephone range of 25 miles and wireless telegraph signals may be heard as far as 250 miles at night.

JACK, THE GIANT'S, SEE-SAW.

LONDON, March 22.—A see-saw being constructed at Shepherd's Bush will be 300 feet high. It will be operated by electricity.

Tribune to Help Solve Perplexing Radio Problems

If you are experiencing difficulty with your receiving set, write to the Radio Editor of The TRIBUNE and state your problem. State what your trouble is, what kind of apparatus you are using and any further facts you think necessary. If you desire to install a receiving set and need advice write to the Radio Editor, stating whether you live in an apartment or a private house, and if outside the city, your distance from Oakland.

Questions of general interest in the radio field will be answered every Sunday in The TRIBUNE, and occasionally on Thursday, depending on the number of questions that are sent in each week. Requests for personal answers should be accompanied by a stamped and self-addressed envelope. No problem is too great to be answered, as The TRIBUNE has at its disposal the services of a number of radio experts.

400 MEMBERS ARE ADDED DAILY TO WIRELESS CLUB

Cards Are Mailed to Amateur Radio Operators; Many Applications Sent In.

More than 400 more membership certificates were sent out today by The TRIBUNE Radio Club. Nearly 400 were mailed yesterday, and approximately that number will be mailed tomorrow. Another flood of applications came in with today's mail.

The certificates are neatly engraved and are signed by P. D. Allen and S. T. Bailey, club president and secretary, respectively.

Members of The TRIBUNE Radio Club are entitled to a 10 per cent reduction between now and June 15 when purchasing radio supplies from five Oakland dealers, the names of whom are to be found elsewhere on this page.

Members of the club are entitled to purchase The TRIBUNE radio receiving sets at cost. Those who desire to buy the sets may have them for $7. The sets retail to non-members for $11.

When the member is in possession of his membership certificate, he may secure his set at 320 Twelfth street, Oakland, providing he shows his pocket card as proof of his membership in the club. He must also show this card when asking for the 10 per cent discount on radio supplies. The 10 per cent discount does not apply on the $7 set, for the price has already been reduced to cost.

The sets will not be ready for several days. The TRIBUNE will announce in plenty of time the date upon which they will be ready for distribution.

Those who desire to earn the sets, and who have already communicated with The TRIBUNE to that effect, will receive a personal letter explaining the plan.

Fifteen Minutes of Radio Daily

By Edward M. Davis

LESSON NO. 8.

Determination of Frequency.

The frequency with which an alternating current flows back and forth in an electrical circuit is a very important function in the operation of the radio transmitter. In alternating current generators this frequency is expressed in cycles per second and it is essential that the student understand clearly the manner in which the electrical current flows back and forth at regular intervals. The previous lesson explained that when a single coil of wire makes a complete revolution between a pair of magnetic poles a current is induced and reverses its direction during the other half revolution. As the coil revolves between the magnetic poles in a complete revolution the current rises from zero to a maximum, returns to zero and increases to a maximum in the opposite direction. The current then returns to zero again, thus completing what is known as the cycle, consisting of two reversals or alternations of the electric current. The number of times this cycle takes place in one second is known as the frequency.

as the frequency of the current. If the single coil makes 60 complete revolutions in one second between a pair of magnetic poles, there will be 120 alternations or reversals of current per second and since 2 alternations constitute a cycle the frequency of the current is 60 cycles per second.

The frequency of an alternating current generator is expressed in cycles per second and is a function of a number of field poles of the generator and of the number of revolutions per second made by the armature. As previously explained, one complete revolution per second of a coil between a pair of field poles constitutes one cycle per second. From this we develop the relation that the frequency of an alternating current generator in cycles per second is equal to the product of the number of pairs of poles by the revolutions of the armature per second.

Frequency (cycles per second) = P x N

Where P = the number of field poles.

Where N = the number of revolutions of the armature per second.

The frequency of an alternating current generator in general use for ship installations vary from 60 to 500 cycles at a pressure ranging from 110 to 500 volts, depending upon the mechanical construction and electrical connection. In the high frequency, alternating current generator developed by the General Electric Company for use as a source of energy in the generation of continuous waves, a frequency of 100,000 cycles has been obtained.

159TH INFANTRY WILL ORGANIZE RADIO UNIT HERE

The federal and state governments propose the organization in Oakland of a regimental headquarters company of the 159th Infantry, this company being the radio and signal unit of the regiment commanded by Colonel David P. Barrows, president of the University of California.

It is proposed to organize immediately this unit so that necessary arrangements for installation of equipment in the armory building now under construction between San Pablo and Grove and between Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth street, may be made at once.

It is desired that the most able amateurs be secured, and quickly, otherwise Los Angeles, San Francisco or Sacramento will get this company.

The United States government will pay all members a retainer pay for serving, payable every six months. This year this unit will go with some 5000 troops to Del Monte where the field equipment will be installed. The state government provides allowance for maintenance of instruments. The government provides all necessary instruments, hydrometers, et cetera.

Radio men who desire to join this new unit of the California National Guard and go to the summer training camp at Del Monte are requested to write headquarters of the 159th Infantry.
